dollars' worth without any tenders being called for. It is alleged that they charged retail prices and then added ten per cent., the percentage being added to cartage charges and also to street car fares. Messrs. Leek delivered the goods to the various schools on their own wagon and $1.50 for each item seems to have been the regular charge permitted by the board. Walter Leek was, at the same time, supervising engineer for the school board and passed on work by his firm and received an additional percentage for so doing.

THE BEAUTY OF SUNLIGHT

is that every garment washed with it bears the impress of purity; a purity begotten of sweet, cleansing oils, and maintained by absolute cleanliness in manufacture; a purity exalted by the co-operation of workers united for the purpose; a purity demonstrated by the "$5,000 guarantee" which rests upon every bar of SUNLIGHT SOAP.

A substitute for Sunlight is not as good and never can be. Insist upon the genuine—Sunlight Soap.
