THE CONTRAST

The Journal compares the Liberal meeting of Friday evening with that of the Conservatives, held recently. The two meetings certainly presented a marked contrast. The Bowser meeting was a thing of cold, stony silences, with no enthusiasm; the Brewster meeting was full of life and fire and optimism. The Bowser audience was brooding sullenly over the past; the Brewster audience was looking hopefully and confidently to the future. Bowser tried to explain away the past with its McBride-Bowser political debauchery, and tried to tell of great things for the future, but the audience refused to accept either Bowser or his explanations, and could not contemplate any future for British Columbia in which Bowser figured. Friday night's audience showed most emphatically that it accepted H. C. Brewster, and his followers as the men who are to lift the province out of the slough into which it has been flung by a company of political adventurers, masquerading under the name Conservative.

The Liberal meeting was not, strictly speaking, a triumph for the Liberal party but a sign of a great and glorious victory coming to the people of British Columbia. It was a heralding of the day when the chains of political slavery in this province will be rent asunder, never more to unite. It was, in a sense, a great personal triumph for H. C. Brewster, M. A. Macdonald, T. D. Pattullo, A. M. Manson, F. H. Mobley and Fred. Stork, for Mr. Stork will represent in the Dominion what the others stand for in the province, but it was an infinitely greater triumph for the freedom of thought and action for which the Liberal party stands, and has always stood.

MORE PLUGGING

The Journal accuses Mr. Brewster of being unfair in his reference to the Conservative method of paying for votes in the last general election. Since Mr. Brewster produced the letters of Harry Price and Victor Love, giving all the details, the Journal does not seek to deny the charges, but, in its usual fashion, draws attention to a case in which it alleges that the Liberals stooped to Tory methods.

The instance is rather an unhappy one and the Journal's memory must be faulty or it would not have mentioned the Islands by-election in which "a boat load of patriots was run over from Vancouver." On that by-election, the fate of the Prior coalition government depended and Richard McBride was leading the opposition, for which side the "plugging" was done. One big "nigger" forgot his "voting" name and went up to Dick McBride and said, "Say Boss, who am I voting for?" Richard McBride was fully cognizant of the whole business.

If the Journal thinks back a little, it will also remember that "Brookie Phil," who figured prominently in the Sullivan "plugging" in the Vancouver by-election, was sentenced to eighteen months for personation on the same occasion. Evidently Dick's "plugging" supporters don't feel sore because Bowser squeezed out their old boss, for "Phil" and his friends have shown quite recently that they are still at the old game and for the same party.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The Journal says that Mr. Macdonald insinuates that Gosden was in the employ of the Conservatives. It is no insinuation, but a fact. This notorious character is at the present moment in the employ of the Bowser machine.

The Journal is not satisfied with Mr. Macdonald's speech. What could one expect of a sheet which sees nothing wrong in letting contracts to the highest political bidder? An organ which insists that nothing was dis-

The Joy of a Vacation may be turned to the sorrow that comes from indigestion. The battle with hotel menus is a losing one for the man with a weak stomach. Happy is the man who listens to the call of the wild—who goes fishing, hunting and canoeing—who takes with him Triscuit, the Shredded Whole Wheat wafer. Triscuit is made of the whole wheat, steam-cooked, shredded and baked. A tasty Summer snack, supplying the greatest amount of nutriment in smallest bulk. Delicious with butter, soft cheese or marmalades.

TRADESMEN WANTED FOR CANADIAN ENGINEERS

Mayor McCaffery has received a letter from the commanding officer of the 6th Field Company, Canadian Engineers, with headquarters at North Vancouver, stating that recruits for this branch of the service are urgently wanted. All professions and trades are eligible for enlistment in this battalion and drafts are shipped for overseas service every two weeks.

The following are required:—Blacksmiths, bricklayers, carpenters, clerks, coopers, architectural draughtsmen, electricians, engineers, fitters and turners, harness makers, masons, painters, plasterers, plumbers, shoemakers, surveyors, tailors, plate layers, etc. Apply to Mayor J. Eades Ward, C. O. 6th Field Company, C. E., North Vancouver.

covered at the public accounts enquiry could never be satisfied with any speech made by a gentleman of the high standing of M. A. Macdonald.

The Tory organ says that the Conservatives at Friday night's Liberal meeting kept quiet. Does the Journal expect Tory politicians to holler at their own funeral?

"Just as sure as grass grows and water runs, there will be a Liberal government in British Columbia after September 14th," said M. A. Macdonald Friday night.

The Brewster meeting must have constituted a record for cheering. On three different occasions three cheers were given for the Liberal leader, while all the others came in for their full share as well. Did you happen to hear any Tory cheering at the Bowser meeting?

That ample statement of what William Manson has accomplished for Prince Rupert caused as much amusement at the meeting Friday night as a Chaplin comedy would have done. Its point was that it hit the truth right on the head without saying one word. It was an eloquent essay on silence.
