CHARLIE CHAPLIN AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

Charlie Chaplin appears at the Westholme tonight only in "The Fireman" and little more need be said. "The Fireman" is the second of Charlie's own productions and it is regarded on all hands as the funniest thing ever screened. You can imagine the havoc Charlie could play with a hose and a fire escape and the fun surpasses anything which you could ever imagine. It is a scream from start to finish and out-Chaplins anything ever produced.

There is a good two-act western drama as well, an Essanay feature entitled "Gold Dust" and a pleasing little one-act play, "His Last Wish."

LONDON PAPER SCORES HONORARY COLONELS

London, July 17.—"I wonder if, while he is here," says the Evening Standard, "General Sir Sam Hughes will consider it expedient to drop a hint around among the Anglo-Canadian community that, though some may have been created honorary colonels, it is not good form for such to appear in uniform, week in and week out. The minister has granted this distinction pretty freely among the civilian element, no doubt as a compliment merely. The compliment may be thoroughly deserved, but its bestowal scarcely entitles the recipient to stalk along Whitehall receiving salutes galore from the genuine article in every rank."
