ALL SAME BOWSER

The Monetary Times, a journal which cannot be accused of having party leanings, has the following to say about the recent Conservative defeat in North Perth:

"In the North Perth constituency of Ontario this week, a Liberal candidate defeated the Conservative nominee and transformed a government majority of 1,117 into an opposition majority of 627. In a strongly Conservative province, that is an event which must have had substantial cause. The explanations of Ontario's cabinet ministers (and we write as a journal which has never entered partisan politics) have missed the vital reasons. The statement of one minister, for instance, that North Perth in some respects is an unusual riding, that conditions there are not uniform and especially the statement 'I do not regard it at all as an indication of the sentiment of the province,' are belittling the significance of the result.

"The Ontario government may easily discover the reasons which accounted for the defeat of their candidate by reading the heart of the rank and file. They are ignorant or blind to the dissatisfaction of members of their own party and of voters at large. The Ontario cabinet has become an autocratic institution in a democratic country. That is the verdict of hundreds of Conservatives who will take the strongest possible measures, as they say themselves, 'to teach the government a lesson.' The dislike of autocracy shared by the opposition and by independent voters who are becoming more numerous as years pass because of the unsatisfactory political state.

"The same argument applies to federal politics and to politics in other provinces. The political machine has been running the country, the people being generally regarded as automatic parts of the machine to be cranked at will. While the blame for the present condition rests with the country at large, the time has come when the people are beginning to revolt. They do not like autocracy, or premiers (some without backbones, some without honesty), or bribery and corruption in high places, all of which they have had in the last few years in nauseating quantities. If politicians refuse to read the signs they will have to taste defeat at the polls. Defeat of such mistaken ideas of government is good for the country. There is much truth in the remark of the somewhat erratic W. F. Maclean, M. P. (South York), that 'the rest of Canada will vote with Perth if Mr. Hearst, Mr. Cochrane and Sir Robert Borden invite them to do so'."

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The local Tory organ, with its usual disregard for the truth, devotes a column to a careful evasion of the provisions of the "Military Voting Act."

No man is more entitled to vote than the man who has offered himself to his country and that is why the Liberals are anxious that the soldiers' votes be taken honestly.

If Bowser has any intention of being honest in regard to the soldiers' vote, let him have the vote taken by British officials who are not interested in any party here, and let the votes be taken on one day, September 14th.

Just as the people of this province will decide overwhelmingly against the Bowser government, so will the soldiers who are in camp in Britain, if the vote is fairly taken. If the vote is honestly taken, under the Bowser act, it will be something approaching a miracle.

We have seen what the Bowserites can do in one day, with Liberal scrutineers present. What will they be able to accomplish in an election lasting for forty-two days and with nothing but Bowser appointees present?

The Journal says that the Liberals have no remedy for the evils which exist in British Columbia. The first great evil is Bowserism, and when the Liberals rid the province of that incubus, the rebuilding will go on steadily and surely under the guidance of H. C. Brewster.

The Journal laments that there will be Seattle "pluggers" in the soldiers' election. The "Military Voting Act" provides for this deficiency amply, and, unless the Liberals are allowed scrutineers at the taking of the votes, full advantage will be taken of the loopholes in the act. "Soapy" Welsh is in charge of the whole business, and all he requires is his old friend John L. Sullivan and the game is on.

After the experience he had at Greenwood, Bowser will likely keep all Liberals off his platform in future. Dr. McLean turned the Bowser meeting into a Liberal demonstration, so overwhelmingly Liberal was the audience.

PRICE OF BREAD

Editor, Daily News,

Dear Sir:—A letter appeared in your columns yesterday, regarding the advance in the price of bread. Evidently the writer did not read our announcement correctly, or, if he did, he is willfully trying to mislead the public, as it states plainly the price in different quantities, and by investing 25 cents in tickets, the bread costs 6 1/4 cents per loaf and not 10 cents.

As to the exorbitant profits the writer speaks of, we venture to say that not a baker in the city can pay the interest on his investment by selling bread at 5 cents per loaf, and if the writer of the letter, or any other interested citizen, will call at the La Casse Bakery we will prove to their entire satisfaction that no such profit exists.

Yours truly,
LA CASSE BAKERY.

SELIG FEATURE AT THE WESTHOLME TONIGHT

Grace Cunard made her first appearance in Prince Rupert, at the Westholme last evening, since her successful starring in "The Broken Coin." This clever actress made quite a hit last night in "Her Better Self," and the Westholme management decided to run the picture tonight again for the benefit of those who did not see it last night. It is not to be missed.

Tonight's feature is "The Devil, the Servant of Man," a very fine Selig three-act drama. There is also a Biograph drama, "The Test of Sincerity," and two good comedies, "The Kidnapped Lover" and "A Strand of Blond Hair," are both first-rate fun producers. The management announces that it has procured some wonderful pictures for the near future.
