

SUMMER DANGERS

The good the Summer outing does the children is often more than undone by the bad water and impure milk.

Most cases of typhoid come from the country. Water and milk are responsible.

"Canada First" is produced from healthy cattle on clean farms. The milk is sterilized to insure absolute safety.

"Canada First" makes coffee and cocoa more delicious. For cooking it is convenient and always available.

The Evaporated (unsweetened) whips like cream. See Inland Rev. Bulletin No. 305, page 5, Table II, for comparisons.

CUT OUT AND STICK UP

Sometime last winter one of our old timers, who, on account of abnormal conditions in Prince Rupert, found it difficult to keep his body in good repair on a diet of sobs and sorrows, developed a large grouch against the city and hid him away to Alaska.

In a recent letter to his friend, Walter Claxton, he seems to have fortunately connected up with three meals per, and, after giving an account of himself, he damns our beautiful city in the following Billingsgate:

It hardly pays to be In Prince Rupert. For there's nothing much to see. In Prince Rupert. She's a dead one all day long. No one sings the latest song. Everyone has got in wrong. In Prince Rupert.

All the men seem much run down. In Prince Rupert. One may smile, but fifty frown. In Prince Rupert. Every lady buys her clothes, Parcel posting, for she knows Bandits soak her to the toes. In Prince Rupert.

Mr. Claxton, replying to the letter, seems to have been inspired for he sure does utter a beautiful prophecy, one which few will read and doubt the inspiration.

THE PROPHECY I've a hunch that you'll come back. To Prince Rupert. Asking pardon for your crack At Prince Rupert. When you meet the mighty throng. You'll confess that you did wrong. Sending south your nasty song To Prince Rupert.

After the war you'll meet big men In Prince Rupert. They will build the depot then, In Prince Rupert. Stretch the yards along the shore. With a hundred tracks or more, Finance confidence restore In Prince Rupert.

You will witness train on train. In Prince Rupert; Bringing in great loads of grain. To Prince Rupert; Filling up the bowels of ships. Safely cabled to the slips, Where the rail to ocean dips. In Prince Rupert.

Grain and ore will overflow. In Prince Rupert. Hammers falling blow on blow. In Prince Rupert; When a Grand Trunk three-shift crew. Cuts the mountain clean in two, Runs a tunnel through and through. To Prince Rupert.

See the smelter furnace red. In Prince Rupert; Milling Copper, gold and lead. In Prince Rupert; Bringing thousands to be fed. Children to be born and bred, Lads and lassies to be wed. In Prince Rupert.

See a mighty ocean fleet. In Prince Rupert; Loading tons and tons of wheat. In Prince Rupert; Ships aloading without number, Sash and doors, all kinds of lumber, Cut from booms the bay encumber. In Prince Rupert.

See the big mills making flour. In Prince Rupert; A thousand barrels every hour. In Prince Rupert; Many a whirring, noisy mill Always running—never still. All my prophecy fulfill. Of Prince Rupert.

All its wonders realize. For Prince Rupert; Scrapers clearing to the skies In Prince Rupert; Hear trip-hammers ringing loud Where the elevators crowd, Oh we'll still grow very proud Of Prince Rupert.
