"THE OLD HOMESTEAD" AT MAJESTIC THEATRE

Denman Thompson's immortal masterpiece, "The Old Homestead," is the feature at the Majestic tonight and tomorrow. This famous play, with its quaint and lovable characters was staged by a company of players in this city over a year ago and all who saw it then will not miss seeing this great Famous Players film production and others should not. The pictures were actually taken at the old Thompson homestead in New Hampshire and the atmosphere and setting of the original play are faithfully brought out. This rustic play has been immensely popular for three decades and is just as refreshing and entertaining as when first produced. Cy Perkins, Ricketty Ann and all the old familiar characters are there to the life. Frank Losee, one of the finest of America's character actors, plays the part of Josh Whitcomb. There are other good pictures and delightful music.

CHILDREN'S PRAYER

Sailor, sailor on the deep
Guarding me while I'm asleep.
Don't forget the children pray
For your safety every day.

Flying man high up in air—
Thank you for your watchful care
Shielding me, remember too
That my little prayers shield you.

Soldier, out to fight and die
That no danger may come nigh.
Here another Army stands,
The little Army of joined hands.

The above is the prayer of the little children of Britain today.
