THE STRUGGLE

In spite of rumors to the contrary, the election fight in this district has resolved itself into a straight contest between William Manson and T. D. Pattullo. There were repeated rumors from the south that Mr. Manson would have much preferred to have contested Nanaimo rather than the northern constituency, and there is good reason to believe that there was ground for the reports, as it is no secret that the Conservatives at headquarters look upon the Prince Rupert contest as something even more desperate than a forlorn hope. H. B. Thompson and the other Tories who recently toured the north made up their minds weeks ago that Willie is doomed to defeat, and, at the Bowser meeting, Mr. Manson's countenance told much more clearly than words ever could, that he knew it was all over but the cheering.

The contest will not be strictly a party one, as, politically speaking, British Columbia is in the melting pot, and the old party lines have been obliterated. True Conservatives have long since awakened to the fact that what has been masquerading as Conservative in this province is a thing unworthy of such a name. One has only to read the letters and speeches of Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper to realize the kind of a struggle we are to have. All that is best in genuine Conservatism will unite with the Liberals, and the men of independent thought, to throttle forever the thing called Bowserism, which has had British Columbia by the throat, or rather by the pockets, for years past.

T. D. Pattullo is the Liberal representative, but he is much more. He stands for all that is best in politics in this part of the province and he is out determined to kill all that is worst. He will have the whole-hearted support of many men who have never cast a Liberal vote in their lives, and William Manson will go down to sure and certain defeat, just as C. E. Tisdall and A. C. Flummerfelt did. William Manson's defeat will not be a personal defeat so much as a conquering of Bowserism, and he will go down for what he represents rather than for what he is. This province will have no more of Bowserism and therefore no more of William Manson.

With affairs financial and industrial at their lowest ebb, with a formidable load of debt and railroad obligations to be met, H. C. Brewster, as the new premier, has no enviable situation to face, but he has a stout heart and sterling character, and the re-building of British Columbia is in safe hands. With H. C. Brewster at the helm and men of the stamp of T. D. Pattullo to support him, the people of this province may look forward confidently to the future. The day of squandering millions is over and the day of real progress is at hand. Every of a JJJJJJel awaJJ flACC... department in Victoria will require careful overhauling and it will be done impartially and thoroughly. A full enquiry into the P. G. E. situation will be necessary, though such an enquiry has been refused point-blank by Bowser, for obvious reasons. The day when an attorney-general can represent the people on the one side and an applicant for public funds on the other, is over. There is much to be done, and T. D. Pattullo will be able to render invaluable assistance in the doing of it.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The spectacle of Austrians shelling drowning women and children is too horrible to think of, but it is one more warning of the type of foe we are fighting.

The Turks evidently do not relish facing the Russian bayonet any more than the Germans do the British article.

The Tories cannot even buy enough support on this occasion to return Bowser to power.

The Journal tries to make it appear that Gaskill withdrew in Prince George in order to escape defeat. The Tory organ cannot conceive of any man placing the province before party and withdrawing in order to make more certain that the Bowser representative is routed. John McInnes will be elected in Prince George.

BOWSER FROZEN OUT IN CARIBOO DISTRICT

Harper's Camp, B. C., Aug. 1.—Premier Bowser was either sadly misled or else showed the same contempt for the intelligence of his audience here as elsewhere in his remarks, which still afford material for amused and unflattering comment at his expense.

"I am the only man who can manage the affairs of British Columbia," he told the people at his meeting here in his egotistic way. "I am the only man in the Dominion of Canada who can borrow money in the markets of the world on provincial credit."

Resent Attitude.

The premier also called Mr. Brewster a lunatic. A month after he made these statements, the people are still resentful at being treated as if they had no common sense. As a matter of fact, the men in the mining camps and the settlers as a whole, are as well informed on public affairs as city electors are.

Bowser's Trip a Frost.

Mr. Bowser's trip through the north was a frost, as is being learned from place to place, notwithstanding the highly colored reports in his subsidized press. Here he would not have had any meeting if it were not for the Liberals. Word had been sent in that the premier was coming but when he got here nothing had been done toward making arrangements. Robert Campbell and others got the school house ready and John R. Williams, one of the oldest miners here, took the chair. As soon as Mr. Bowser got through he left the hall hurriedly and the other seakers also rushed what they had to say. No opportunity was given for questions. Although Mr. Williams was in the chair then, his parting words to Mr. Brewster this morning were, "my hearty good wishes for complete victory for you."
