Dr. J. L. Campbell left for the south this morning.

C. L. Fraser, of Anyox, was in the city over the weekend.

Mrs. de Gex was amongst the south-going passengers this forenoon.

Hon. William Manson arrived from the south early this morning on the Chelohsin.

Mrs. John Dean has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, in Victoria.

D. R. O'Neill and E. C. Gibbons left for the interior on a fishing expedition this morning.

Mrs. D. J. Williams left for the south this morning and Mr. Williams left for Tranville.

J. B. Tyrell, of the Department of Mines at Ottawa, is in town, a guest at the Hotel Rupert.

A. Kinghorn, formerly of this city and now with the G. T. P. in Edmonton, is spending a week in town.

F. Bradshaw and Clyde A. Heller of the Tonopah-Belmont Development Company, arrived from Surf Inlet yesterday.

Father Thayer preached yesterday morning in the Roman Catholic Church. It is interesting to note that Father Thayer celebrated the first Mass in Prince Rupert in 1908.

Over 800,000 pounds of halibut was landed at Prince Rupert during the last five days. There is so much fish coming in that the G. T. P. has difficulty in providing enough refrigerator cars.

Mr and Mrs. J. E. Lalonde and baby left for Prince George this morning, where Mr. Lalonde takes over the management of the G. T. P. Telegraphs. Many friends were at the train to wish them success.

Mr. Hardy received letters last night from his boys, Fred and Alf who are with the 102nd Battalion at Bramshot. They are fit and well and looking forward eagerly to being sent to France.

Hon. Dr. Roche, Minister of the Interior, and Col. Thompson, member for the Yukon, arrived from the north on the Princess Charlotte on Saturday. Col. Thompson left for Victoria last evening, his family remaining here to visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thompson. Dr. Roche left for the east this morning.

The G. T. P. ticket office simply swarmed with tourists this morning and the train which left for the east was one of the heaviest from a passenger standpoint which has ever pulled out of Rupert.

LAWRANCE D'ORSAY AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

There is a magnificent eight-reel show at the Westholme tonight, when Lawrence D'Orsay is presented in "The Earl of Pawtucket," in five reels. The play was specially written for D'Orsay and it is one of the most laughable comedies ever produced. It is one grand roar, riotously, rippingly funny. Anyone who has seen D'Orsay on the stage will make a point of seeing it. All the laughs have been preserved and are handed out with a liberal hand.

In addition to this great film there will be shown the first instalment of "The Master Key," one of the few really great serials of the screen. A fine Keystone comedy completes a record show.

YUKON TRAFFIC

That the north is beginning to look upon Prince Rupert as its trading centre is evidenced by the fact that G. W. Nickerson Company have just booked an order for a carload of Quaker flour for shipment to Dawson. This will be the first carload of flour to be shipped through Prince Rupert to the Yukon. This enterprising firm was also the first to bring in a carload of milk over the G. T. P.
