NO PARTY

The Journal naturally puts the best face possible upon the political situation in the province, from the Bowser standpoint. Well it knows that the Bowser regime is ended and that clean government is coming to this province at last. It continues to misrepresent the Bowser aggregation of machine politicians as the "Conservative" party, when it well knows that every Conservative worthy of that good old name is utterly disgusted with conditions in British Columbia under Bowserism.

So far as this provincial election is concerned, there should be no such thing as Grit or Tory. The old lines of demarcation have been completely wiped out, and it is to be hoped, wiped out forever, so far as provincial politics is concerned. There should be no room for party in a province, where the only concern of a government is the handling of purely provincial affairs.

Whatever the Journal may say to the contrary, William Manson will admit that he has found in his tour of the province ample evidence of a great change in public opinion. He must admit that he was not received by genuine Conservatives as a Conservative, but as a Bowser supporter. What Vancouver and Victoria think of Bowser was magnificently displayed at the by-elections, and that the cities in the south and the interior and northern districts have still the same very low opinion of this political opportunist will be still more emphatically shown on September 14th.

There is no longer any room for Bowserism in British Columbia, and his supporters must go out into outer darkness with him. The people of this province cannot afford to repeat their mistakes of the past and they will take great care that the huge mistake of allowing a man of the Bowser stamp to control the destinies of British Columbia for five minutes after September 14th, will not be made.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The Victoria Matsonian sheet claims that Tupper is opposed to Bowser out of professional jealousy. This is strange, as the two are not of the same profession.

Bowser has been forced to make a few amendments to the Military Voting Act, but even these are typically Bowserian. They are safeguarded by such clauses as "where practical." If Welsh decides that it was not practicable to notify Liberal scrutineers that voting was to take place at a given point, he need not worry.

A list of the Liberal candidates in the provincial election was

Come Out of the Kitchen. It is the closed season for the bake-oven. Banish kitchen worry and work. Forget cooks, servants and gas bills. Solve your Summer problem by serving Shredded Wheat Biscuit, the ready-cooked whole wheat food. A food that restores the digestive organs to their natural vigor, supplies all the nutriment needed for a half-day's work, and keeps the bowels healthy and active.

cabled to London for distribution in the camps. The reply from the Bowser boss there was "Distribution positively prohibited." The camps have been flooded with Bowser literature of the News-Advertiser stamp, but the names of the Liberal candidates cannot be made known. More Bowserism.

In referring to the display of Bowserism in taking the soldiers' votes under only Bowser auspices, The Sun says "Revolutions have been caused by less serious onslaughts on the rights of a free people." The revolution against Bowserism is on now. It is bloodless, but none the less effective.

Bowser's methods are typically Prussian and they will meet with exactly the same fate as Prussianism must meet the world over. The people must and shall reign.

DOUBLE ATTRACTION AT THE WESTHOLME THEATRE

There is another double feature program at the Westholme tonight when the 16th episode of "Graft" is screened. This story is entitled "The Pirates of Finance" and promises to be one of the most thrilling of this great series. Richard Stanton is in the lead. The other big item is "Crime's Triangle," a three-act photoplay in which the international star, King Baggott, appears.

There is also a very fine Universal Weekly and a Keystone comedy entitled "Beating Hearts and Carpets." There should be enough fun and excitement in this bill to please any taste. Tomorrow there will be another Red Feather Feature.

SYMBOLIC DRAMA AT MAJESTIC THEATRE

"The Absentee," the five-act Mutual Masterpiece at the Majestic tonight, is one of the most remarkable films ever screened. It is an allegorical and symbolical drama, the opening scenes being particularly so, though the events which follow deal with modern life and are intensely realistic. The entire scheme of symbolic treatment is first presented in poetical fashion, the characters representing traits, influences and results that dominate the modern story. Power, Might, Ambition, Contentment, Happiness, Innocence, Vanity and Justice are all set forth in concrete images, as in the stage plays of Ibsen, Rosset and Maeterlinck. Robert Edeson plays the leading part and it is a play well worth seeing.

George Ovey, the greatest laughter provoker of the screen, appears in "The Desperate Chance," a roaring farce, while "Biddy Brady's Birthday" keeps the fun going.
