"MILLION DOLLAR" STARS AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

James Cruze and Flo La Badie, the ever-popular "Million Dollar Mystery" stars, are the attraction at the Westholme tonight, when they appear in "Cardinal Richelieu's Ward," a four-reel picturization of Bulwer Lytton's famous novel of old France. This should prove to be a highly interesting and thrilling photoplay, with Flo La Badie at her daintiest as a pretty Parisienne of the exciting time of Richelieu.

There is also a Billie Ritchie comedy, entitled "Knocks and Opportunities" and a good two-act Reliance drama, "Dan Morgan's Way." On Wednesday, "Graft" will be shown; on Thursday, a Red Feather feature, and on Friday, Chaplin.

BOWSER DIRECTOR OF WALLACE SHIPYARDS

It seems to be very easy for some men to fall afoul of the criminal law, without "criminal intent." Premier Bowser has done it again. During the last session of the legislature, when he was charged with giving to the Pacific Great Eastern railway company some millions of dollars contrary to law, he admitted the charge, but said no "criminal intent" was shown. It now turns out that at the time the Wallace Shipyards, Ltd., were given the contract of building ships in connection with the government shipbuilding policy, Hon. Mr. Bowser was a director of the company. There is a clause of the criminal code which says that officers of the government are not to take commissions, nor participate, etc. in government work. However, there was no criminal intent on Hon. Mr. Bowser's part, surely. Anyway, it turns out that the matter has been brought to his attention and he has resigned from the board of directors.

It is reported that the premier declared when advised of the delicate position his place on the board of directors put him in, that he had entirely forgotten about being a director of the company, it was incorporated in the offices of Bowser, Reid & Wallbridge, and, as sometimes is customary, when companies are being incorporated, their lawyer takes a required one share, or such a matter, to complete the provisional board of directors, etc. This is where Mr. Bowser had no "criminal intent" again.—Sun.
