AUSTRIANS ARE DISPERSED BY RUSSIAN GUNS

Galicia Swarms with Victorious Russians—Berlin Admits British Advance—Wilhelm goes East.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Petrograd, Aug. 16.—The western banks of the rivers of Galicia are swarming with victorious Russians. The gateway to the Carpathians has been captured and the Austrians are dispersing rapidly. The enemy cannot face the intense shelling from the Russian big guns.

Berlin Admits Defeat.
Berlin, Aug. 16.—The Kaiser has gone to the eastern front, where the Austrians are clamoring for reinforcements. It is officially admitted that the British forces have occupied the first line of German trenches from Thiepval to Pozieres.

War Bonds.
New York, August 16.—A British movement has been inaugurated and an advertising campaign started with a view to encouraging overseas Britons to invest in the recently issued five per cent. exchequer bonds.

FAMILY STRICKEN WITH PTOMAIN POISONING

A wire reached town last evening from Skidegate stating that Mrs. T. Sipes and the members of her family had been stricken with ptomaine poisoning, resulting from the eating of canned salmon. Advice was sent by wire and about midnight, Dr. J. P. Cade left for Skidegate on the Walrondo, kindly placed at his disposal by George B. Hull. This morning, word reached town that Mrs. Sipes and one child had died, and that the others are in grave danger.

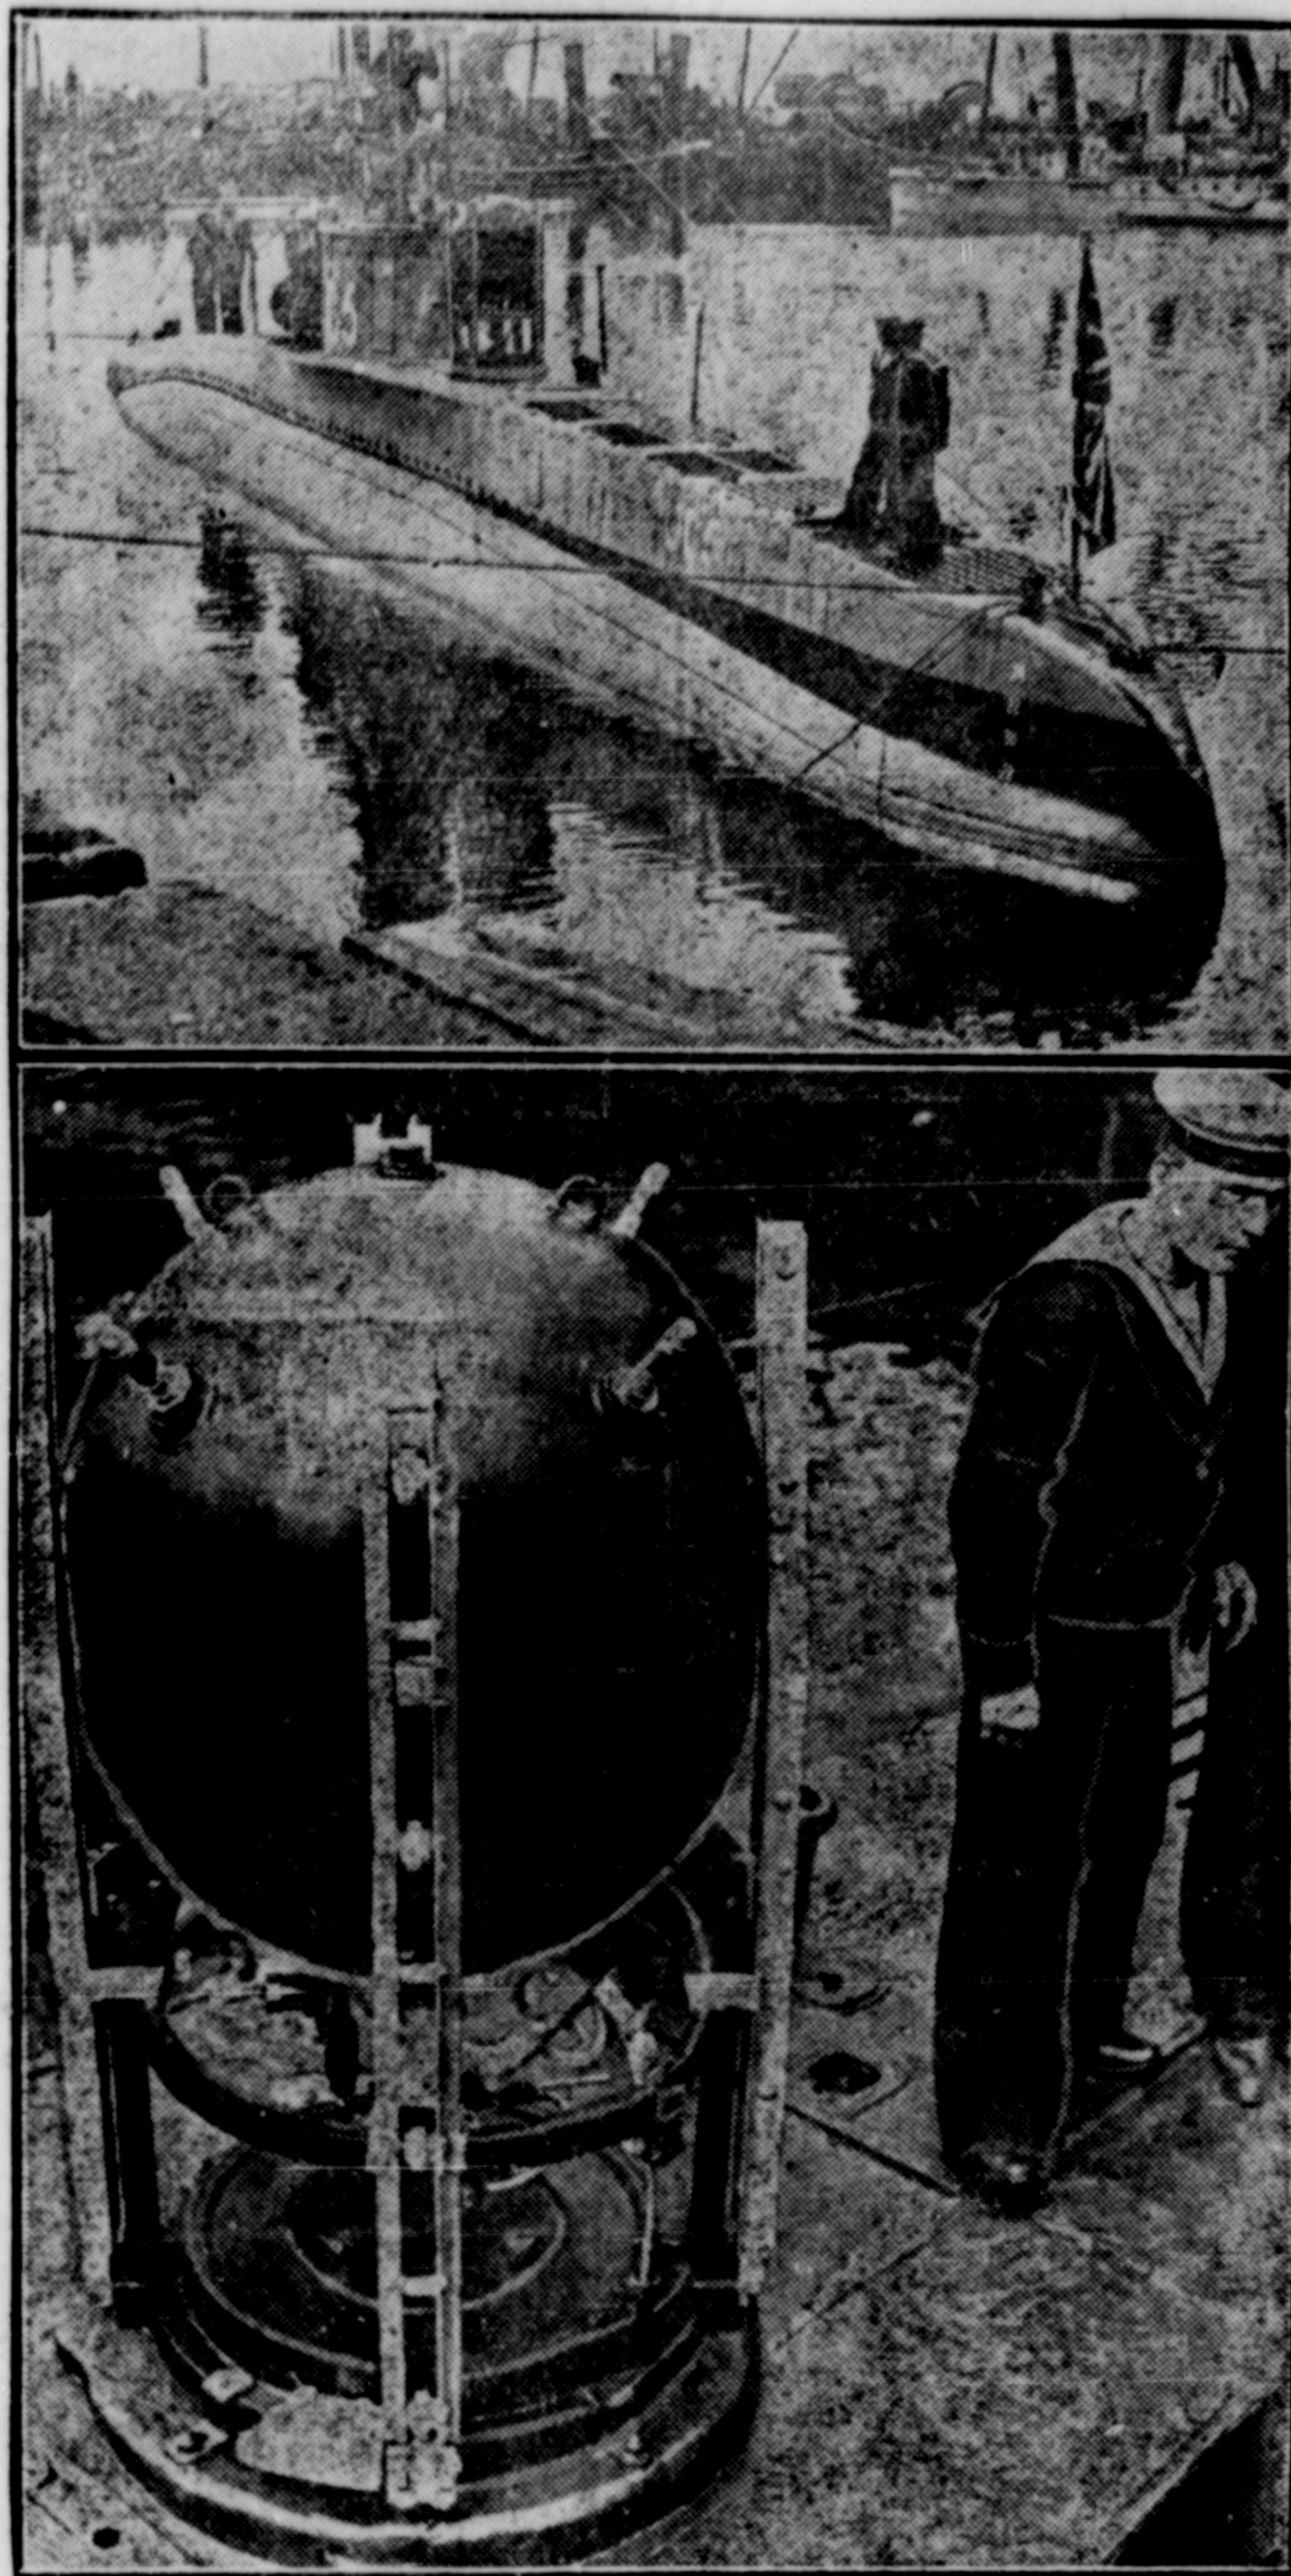

Later.
The latest report from Skidegate is to the effect that Mrs. Sipes and two children are dead and that Mrs. Sipes' mother and one child are dying.

DIAGNOSED OWN CASE

(Special to The Daily News.)
Chicago, Aug. 16.—Dr. Murphy, the noted surgeon of Mercy Hospital, who died on Saturday, diagnosed his own case as angina pectoris. He assigned his body to the medical authorities for scientific purposes.

A magnificent moose head and two caribou heads were shipped east this morning, en route for London, England. The moose carried a remarkably fine spread of horns.

William Balagno has just received from Vancouver his $500 violin which he left there for repairs. Violin solos by this accomplished young violinist will now be a feature of Majestic programs.

ENEMY SUBMARINE MINE-LAYER CAUGHT BY THE BRITISH
Upper picture shows one of the latest German mine-laying submarines caught by the British and now on exhibition in the Thames. The lower picture shows the type of mine carried.

NOT NOMINATED

There seems to be an idea abroad that Alderman George Casey is a candidate in the Atlin district, against F. H. Mobley and W. X. Macdonald. It is absolutely certain that Mr. Casey was not nominated. The Vancouver papers were responsible for the error.

IRISH FUSILIERS TO REMAIN HERE

The Irish Fusiliers, who were to have gone south on the Chelmsin last night, received orders during the day that they were to remain in this district until notified. Many of the men were looking forward to rejoining their families, while others, who had transferred their families here, had disposed of their furniture at low prices preparatory to departure. Undoubtedly there was a little disappointment at the last minute change, but all the men took it like soldiers, without a murmur.

ITALIANS NOW WITHIN REACH OF TRIESTE CITY

Austrian Fleet Sails—Tolmino in Flames and Liable to Fall any Moment—Battle-ship Sunk.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Rome, August 16.—The Italians are vigorously pursuing the Austrians on the Carso Plateau and the advance guards are now within thirteen miles of Trieste, the important Austrian seaport and naval base in the Adriatic. The Austrian fleet, which was lying in Trieste harbor, has sailed for an unknown destination.

Unofficial Report.
Paris, August 16.—An unofficial report from Switzerland states that the Italians have entered the suburbs of Tolmino and that the Austrians are now evacuating the city, which is now burning as a result of the Italian bombardment. The fall of Tolmino is expected momentarily.

Dreadnought Sunk.
An explosion has occurred on the Italian dreadnought Leonardo da Vinci, while lying in the harbor of Taranto, following a fire which originated in the kitchen. It is believed that it will be possible to refloat and repair the vessel. Three hundred of her crew were drowned.

FISHERMAN DROWNED OFF DOMINION CANNERY

John Hrafudal Johnson, a fisherman of 67 years of age, was drowned in the Skeena yesterday near Dominion Cannery. It seems that he was out fishing in a small skiff, and, while paying out the net, found his boat drifting too far out. Reaching to handle the sail, he got his foot entangled in the net and went overboard, the net dragging him down. The body was recovered and brought to town last night and placed in the parlors of the B. C. Undertakers. Interment will take place tomorrow morning at eleven o'clock to Fairview Cemetery.

WHEAT GAMBLERS

(Special to The Daily News.)
Chicago, Aug. 16.—Wheat speculators deny the accusation that there is a conspiracy amongst them to divert supplies of wheat from Britain and that this is the cause of the sudden unusual advance which is telling against British dealers.

NOTICE

All ladies and gentlemen interested in the prohibition movement to abolish the saloon in B. C. are requested to attend a meeting to be held in the city council room on Thursday night at 8:15. 192

R. P. Trimble, the well known mining man, is likely to be confined to the hospital for the next few days as the result of an accident which happened to him in the hills.

WILSON STANDS FIRM FOR EIGHT HOUR DAY PLAN

Railroad Men Agree to Wilson's Proposals—President Will now Confer with Magnates—Hughes a Fighter.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Washington, Aug. 16.—President Wilson yesterday placed a proposal before the leaders of the Railwaymen's Unions, with a view to averting the strike which has been threatening for some time. The men agreed to the terms proposed and the President will now call in the money kings and railroad presidents to discuss those proposals. It is expected that the employers will be satisfied with Wilson's terms, which the men have already agreed to. President Wilson stands firm for the principle of an eight hour day.

Hughes Would Fight.
Tacoma, August 16.—"I would fight for the rights of the United States," said Charles E. Hughes, the Republican standard bearer at a meeting here last night. He also told his audience that he would not shrink from his obvious duty and declared that protection of American citizens abroad should be effected at any cost.

AID TO PRISONERS

Mrs. Cambie and Mrs. Homer will have charge of the Red Cross sale of home-cooking in aid of the Canadian prisoners of war in Germany, in the Red Cross rooms, Sixth Street, on Friday. Reports received from prisoners who have been released show how poorly our boys are fed in the enemy camps, and a special effort should be made by all ladies to provide an ample supply of cooking.
