NOT REPRESENTED

Point Grey is in a similar situation to Prince Rupert, in that the provincial government sold a good many lots there, and many of the purchasers have defaulted in their payments and also in paying their taxes.

Prince Rupert is in the same position as Point Grey. Many lots in which the government holds an equity, have arrears of taxes against them, but the government in the past has refused to do anything towards paying those taxes, yet Point Grey has received just exactly what Prince Rupert has been refused.

This is just another example of the sort of representation this city has had in Victoria. William Manson sat in the house while the agreement with Point Grey was entered into, yet he never raised his voice to ask for a similar arrangement for this city.

Imagine T. D. Pattullo letting such an opportunity slip. Had T. D. Pattullo been on the opposition benches, instead of on the government side, as was William Manson, he would have raised the question so strongly that Bowser would have been forced to do something or suffer the consequences.

As was very neatly pointed out recently, William Manson's qualities are entirely of the negative order. He is known only for what he doesn't do. He is of the "harmless" type, whose qualities are summed up and crystallized in one great 0.

City Solicitor Peters is now entering into a discussion with Victoria on this question and is making the demands of Prince Rupert clear, namely, that this city wants the same treatment at the hands of the government as has been meted out to Point Grey.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

In conjunction with the recent rumor from Ottawa of a Federal election, the news of Sir Robert Borden's prospective tour of the west this fall looks as if something were about to happen in the political world.

The London press is ominously silent in regard to Sir Sam Hughes. Sam is not interviewed like he used to be. Probably London has read of the Kitchener letter about the Ypres salient.

Washington has now published its third edition of war notes. It will make very quiet, peaceful reading and is guaranteed not to stir up any warlike impulses.

The Bowser press in the south did not reproduce that part of Mr. Pooley's speech in which he threatened the livelihood of four men because they happened to be Liberals. The Bowser press is paid to publish just what the boss wants published.

noying the Bowserites horribly. The part that hurts is that Bowser cannot deny that he handed over millions illegally to the Pacific Great Eastern, while his firm acted as agents for that company.
