CHARLIE CHAPLIN AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

Charlie Chaplin heads the bill at the Westholme Theatre tonight in "The Vagabond." This is described as the finest Chaplin picture ever filmed. It is full of Charlie's funny stunts while there is quite a touch of romance running through it. The romance is not allowed to interfere with the fun however, and "The Vagabond" is screamingly funny.

There are five other first-class reels and some very fine music by P. C. Daugherty and H. A. Harvey, making a most enjoyable show.

On Saturday, Marie Tempest will be presented in "Mrs. Plum's Pudding." This celebrated London star needs no introduction, and Saturday's show is bound to draw a large audience.

Railroad Strike.

Washington, Aug. 18.—President Wilson has invited the presidents of the principal railways in the United States to visit Washington immediately to discuss the differences between employers and employed.

PROPHECY

The Rossland Miner, a bred in the bone Tory organ, has suddenly qualified for a large and prominent niche in the prophet's hall of fame. Referring to a visit of Premier Bowser and party to Rossland recently the Miner says in prominent headlines: "The home of the minister of mines turns out en masse to greet 'extinguished' personages." It's a little early to refer to the great personages in question as extinguished. But on September 14th they will be blown out by a hurricane of ballots and the day will be a dark one indeed for Bowser and Company and the Bowservative party in British Columbia.—Sun.
