THAT WRIT

The Bowser press, in order to cover up the many misdeeds of the Bowser administration, is devoting most of its attention to proclaiming that the Brewster writ was issued in order to tie up the legislation of the past session.

Evidently, the Bowserites admit that the legislation was passed illegally, as, if it were passed in perfect order, the Brewster writ cannot possibly set it aside. If the legislation is legal, a thousand writs would not make it illegal, and, if it is illegal, all the protestations of Bowser and his satellites will not make it legal, nor prevent any individual in the province from contesting any part of it.

As everyone knows, the Brewster writ was issued for the purpose of obtaining for the people of this province an accounting of the funds spent by the Pacific Great Eastern Railway. This was demanded on the floor of the Legislature, but of course Bowser with his steam-roller flattened out the request in the usual fashion. An accurate accounting of the millions squandered on the P. G. E. was the last thing the government desired.

H. C. Brewster is asking for the aid of the courts to recover for the people of this province the monies which have been misapplied by the government, and misspent by the railway company. The details as to how this company put none of their own money into the railroad, but built it entirely at public expense, are familiar to all. The contractors let to themselves the construction work at prices which even the notorious Mackenzie-Mann outfit dared not attempt.

The only Bowser answer is that Brewster is tying up the affairs of the province. If the arresting of piracy of the public purse is tying up the affairs of the province, then Brewster is guilty, and he ought to be proud of it. If the demanding of an accounting from Foley, Welch & Stewart is tying up the affairs of the province, they ought to have been tied up long ago. What Brewster is trying to tie up is the string at the mouth of the public purse. The money of this province has flowed out like water into the dams of the railroad construction firms of Mackenzie & Mann and Foley, Welch & Stewart and the flow must be stopped if the province is not to bleed to death.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

In a wild endeavor to grab all the support possible, the Bowser press is already claiming credit for the government because this province will ship $20,000,000 worth of copper this year. The war had nothing whatever to do with it, oh no.

H. H. Stevens is telling the press in Vancouver how flourishing the north is and that things are looking well for the government. Mr. Stevens must not have noticed that 30,000-acre tract of idle Dunsmuir land near Hazelton, nor the hundreds of thousands of acres elsewhere which are tied up by the speculator, and which the Soldiers' Homestead Act will fail to touch.

Visitors from Telkwa and the Omineca country generally are emphatic in their statements that A. M. Manson will be returned with a large majority. "It is not so much that we want a Liberal member," said one rancher, "but we are all sick and tired of Bowser and are ready to give a Liberal government a chance."

All the meetings, speeches and political pamphlets ever put together will have very little effect upon the result of the election on September 14th. What is going to send Bowser down to defeat is the personal experiences of the average man in this province during the past few years. When a man has had painful personal experience of the maladministration

BIG PREPARATIONS FOR TELKWA ROUND-UP

Alex. Prudhomme, who is spending a few days in town from his ranch at Telkwa, reports that the hay crop has been quite good in many parts of his district, though it has been light in some places. Alex. is looking tanned and very fit, and this is not to be wondered at when one learns that, along with two men, he put up 75 tons of hay in twenty-four days. He reports that his grain crop is ripening nicely and vegetables are showing up splendidly.

The ranchers are all busy preparing for the big cattle sale and round-up at Telkwa on Labor Day, when they look for the biggest celebration of the kind ever held in the interior. Buyers are expected from all over the district and there will be a big sale, while horse races and sports will follow, the whole being rounded off with a big dance in the hall which is being built at Telkwa. The Bulkley Valley is looking forward to entertaining lots of business men from Prince Rupert on the 4th.

The city council has decided to run a telephone line to the cemetery, thus saving a considerable amount of expense in sending messages out there. C. L. Munroe, in Section Two will be connected up on the same line.

Coronation of the City of Prince Rupert.
