It's Time for a Change

VANCOUVER FORETOLD IT.
VICTORIA EMPHASIZED IT.
THE PEOPLE DEMAND IT.

The Islands have been depleted of Settlers.

The settler is leaving the interior because he cannot get his children to school.

Farm settlements are scattered over the valleys of our hinterland miles apart.

No attempt has been made to settle the north on any community plan.

Roads are built for political purposes instead of for development.

Huge tracts of land held by the speculator separate the settlers, and prevent them from having any social life or any of the advantages of civilization.

A VOTE FOR WILLIAM MANSON IS A VOTE FOR THE SPECULATOR—A VOTE FOR T. D. PATTULLO IS A VOTE FOR COMMUNITY SETTLEMENT.

REAL COWPUNCHING AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE

"Ben Blair," the five-act Famous Players feature at the Majestic, is something remarkably fine in western pictures. The story is founded on the famous novel by Will Lillibridge and the scenes are taken on the ranch of one of the last of the great cattle barons. There is some clever acting by a boy and girl, who develop into the hero and heroine of the play, and the scenes of broncho-busting, branding, etc., are the real thing. Dustin Farnum is in his element as a cowboy and he was never seen to better advantage. "Ben Blair" is a real flesh and blood story.

The Eclair Animated Journal shows very fine views of the Kitchener memorial service; of a review by the King, and of our boys at Saloniki. It is a very fine show.

VIOLET MARSEAU AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

"The Wolf of Debt" a four-act drama in which the famous actress Violet Marseau is the star, is the big item at the Westholme tonight. It is the story of the struggles of a mother and her daughter against poverty. The mother schemes to have her daughter marry a wealthy man, only to find that the prospective husband has lost his fortune on the eve of the wedding. The mother then tries to break the engagement but the daughter remains loyal to her choice. It is a remarkably human story which carries a strong appeal.

The second episode of "The Master Key," a serial which is proving interesting, is also shown and an L-KO comedy rounds off this big show. There is another double attraction for tomorrow, when "Graft" is screened along with a Red Feather Feature.
