"THE GOLDEN CHANCE" AT MAJESTIC THEATRE

Cleo Ridgely and Wallace Reid make their debut as co-stars in "The Golden Chance," the Lasky production at the Majestic tonight. Individually, both have won fame, Miss Ridgely in "The Chorus Lady" and Mr. Reid as Don Jose in "Carmen."

In "The Golden Chance," Miss Ridgely plays the part of a poor seamstress who is confronted with an opportunity to enjoy for a brief period the luxuries of life and to forget her poverty. Cinderella like she meets a financial prince, who falls in love with her. Circumstances compel her to hide her real identity and to refuse the golden chance. Subsequently, however, the complications are overcome after a series of exciting and dramatic situations and they live happy ever after. There is a strong supporting caste and the entire six reels are thoroughly interesting.

DOUBLE ATTRACTION AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

There is a big double attraction at the Westholme tonight when Hobart Bosworth, one of the greatest actors of the screen, appears in "The Target," an intensely interesting five-act drama in five acts. In addition to this big feature, the 18th episode of "Graft" will be shown and this installment promises just as much thrill and excitement as the others of this great series. An Universal Weekly of the latest world's news makes up a big show.

For Monday only, there is another big program of nine reels, including "Jewel," featuring Ella Hall, and the third episode of "The Master Key." The theatre has been let for a Christian Science lecture on Tuesday night.

Don't Send Money in a Letter

WHEN you send subscriptions to magazines, or order goods out of town, or pay small accounts at a distance, do not place the actual cash in the envelope. Thousands of dollars are lost every year through fire, robbery or mis-direction. Use the Bank Money Orders, issued by this bank. They are payable in Canada and the United States in any sum up to fifty dollars.

Their protection is well worth their small cost.
