"THE GOLDEN CHANCE" AT MAJESTIC THEATRE

"The Golden Chance," a great five-act Lasky production enhances the reputation of the Majestic tonight. It is a play of modern life in which Cleo Ridgely is presented as a poor seamstress who is given an opportunity to marry a wealthy man, with Wallace Reid as the man. The poor seamstress refuses the opportunity but she has made such an impression upon the society man that he ultimately finds a way out of her difficulties and they are at last united. It is a very fine play, and rich in the human element. The acting leaves nothing to be desired.

There is also a special Eclair Gazette showing thousands of Austrian prisoners taken by the Russians and other great war scenes, those of the western front being particularly good. It is a splendid entertainment.

interior. They are looking over the timber areas of the province.

J. G. McLelland, of Truro, N. S., arrived from the east last night to visit with his son, J. G. McLelland, Junr., of this city. Miss McLelland, who is a nurse in Victoria, accompanied her father to the coast.

SPLENDID SHOW AT THE WESTHOLME THEATRE

There is another fine Red Feather feature at the Westholme tonight in "The Target," a five-reel drama. The story is of a big man, big in stature and in heart, who is deserted by his friends, his mother alone retaining her faith in him. He is sent to prison for the crime of another. He and another prisoner escape to Canada and finally settle in B. C. He returns to see his mother and is again pounced on, but finally he is square with the world. It is an intensely dramatic story in which Hobart Bosworth is seen at his best. The 18th episode of "Graft" is one of the most thrilling yet, the scenes being laid in Chinese opium dens. An excellent Universal Weekly concludes an eight-reel show which is one of the finest ever shown at the Westholme.

SLIGHT FIRE

There was quite a little blaze at the Journal plant about 11:30 last night when a leak from the gasoline feed pipe to the linotype machine caught fire. The brigade was quickly on the scene and the chemical apparatus put out the blaze but things around the linotype machine were so hot that it was impossible to get the paper off this morning.

LUX is the essence of fine, pure soap in flakes and possesses marvelous cleansing and preserving properties. It keeps all loosely woven fabrics from shrinking and thickening in the wash. Have you tried LUX?

LUX breaks into a foamy cream-like lather that cannot injure the finest fabrics or the most delicate hands. It softens the hardest water, thus preserving the original elasticity of fabrics and adding to their life. Try LUX in the bath.
