COMPLETE CHANGE AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

There is a complete change of program at the Westholme tonight, when a picturization of Ouida's beautiful story, "Strathmore," is presented. The leading parts are played by Irene Hunt and Charles Clary and this drama should prove highly interesting. This is the first of Ouida's novels to have been reproduced on the screen and all who have read any of the works of this remarkable writer will be certain to see the picture. The drama is in four acts and the bill is completed by two comedies, "Editions de Luxe" and "The improbable Yarn of McQuirk." Mary Fuller appears on Monday and Tuesday in "Under Southern Skies."

By patronizing the refreshment and tea stalls as well as raffles at the Fair you will get value received as well as assisting the fund for the British Red Cross day at the same time.

"THE LOST BRIDEGROOM" AT MAJESTIC THEATRE

"The Lost Bridegroom," the Famous Players' production at the Majestic tonight, is a great Barrymore feature and is remarkable for the fact that this is the first occasion on which John Barrymore has ever played the part of a crook. He is usually in the part of a prince or other elegant role. He is, however, a crook by accident and the results of the accident are often funny and more often thrilling. Bertie is on his way home from his last bachelor dinner, and is hit on the head by two thugs. He loses his memory completely and wanders around in his top hat and little else until he enters a saloon, where he is taken up by a gang of crooks. His career of crime is exciting in the extreme and it ends as suddenly as it began. A good comedy makes up a show well worth seeing.

LABOR DAY NUMBER

In the special Labor Day number of the British Columbia Federationist, there is a splendidly written article on the history of the struggles of Labor in Prince Rupert from the early days of the railroad camp to the present time, with its large increase of organizations. It is written by S. D. Macdonald, president of the Trades and Labor Council, and shows that Mr. Macdonald is quite as capable of providing copy as he is in setting type.

LUX

To give sweater coats a new lease of life

Now that sweater coats are getting more expensive, it is more than ever desirable that you wash yours with LUX. Of all things a sweater coat, which is seen so much, must be kept soft, fluffy, fleecy and "new" in appearance. You can keep yours that way and wash it again and again if you do this:

Pour boiling water over LUX flakes—pure essence of soap—allowing 3 or 4 tablespoonfuls for every gallon of water you use. Whip into a creamy lather—a few seconds is needed. Then put in the garment and stir it about. Let it soak until cool enough for your hands to squeeze the water out of the coat—the dirt just runs away. Rinse in two or three relays of tepid water, and hang to dry.

Very simple. Anyone can do it—just a few minutes' work and you get a result that the most expert French cleaner might well envy.

LUX won't shrink woollens. Won't hurt any fabric or color that pure water can safely touch.
