WHO WILL LEAD THE TORY FORLORN HOPE

the last thing the Borden government wants to do the Honorable Bob must have recourse to his old arts which are now outworn. Even at that the Honorable Bob is said to be more in touch with the people than is Premier Borden, because the West has a way of stating its grievances in good set terms, which the Honorable Bob can hardly avoid overhearing. Strange though it may seem the Honorable Bob is a better bet as a strong man than Sir Robert. At least he has the courage of his convictions—said convictions at present centering around Tom Kelly and the three Manitoba cabinet ministers. Just now the Honorable Bob is engaged in adding perhaps ten millions to Canada's prospective debt of a billion dollars by giving us an entirely new Parliament Buildings at Ottawa, where the old one might have been done over. But this, as we have said before, was only to be expected. The Hon. Bob as Minister of Public Works, with most of the public works held up, is under eclipse to Sir Sam as Minister of Militia with the greatest war in history on his hands. Sir Sam can't be allowed to spend all the money. The Honorable Bob must do his bit, too. If strong-arm work makes a strong man, then the Honorable Bob's heroic measures in regard to the new Parliament Buildings at Ottawa entitles him to a proud place.

Sir Thomas White is mentioned as the possible strong man, but the objection is raised that he ought to take a longer time to graduate as a Conservative. He has done very well so far but his best friends admit that it would be crowding the mourners to push him along so fast over the grizzled heads of the faithful party followers who were ignored when he experienced conversion and was taken into the Cabinet. Sir Thomas will have to do penance for a few years longer. The party wants to make sure that he won't be a backslider. Besides

Sir Thomas is not as strong as he was with the Canadian leaders of finance before he made it an American loan instead of a Canadian one.

Of course, there is always Sir Sam. What about running him as a khaki hero with Orange trimmings and let it go at that? Sir Sam is doing a little publicity work in England right now, with the aid of Sir Max Aitken, who, when he is not eye-witnessing Sir Sam's triumphs, is committing merger or something like that. Sir Sam is a strong man—that is to say his friendship with the late Honorary Colonel John Wesley Allison gives out a strong smell.—H. F. Gadsby.

2,000,000 Belgians Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flags are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!
