"The newspaper, with the law, should assume the accused innocent until proven guilty; should be the friend, not the enemy of the general public; the defender, not the invader of private life and the assailant of personal character. It should be, as it were, a keeper of the public conscience."—Henry Watterson.

DANGER ON THE PLANKWAYS

The spectacle of an affrighted team in full gallop along Third avenue plankway yesterday afternoon, at a time when women and children are likely to be on their way to and from town, is a sufficient reason for leaving the far off field of foreign politics, and turning our thoughts to things nearer home.

There is a regulation in the Streets Traffic By-law passed by the late city council to the effect that every horse left standing on the street must have a sixteen pound weight attached to the bridle. It is safe to say that few in Prince Rupert have seen a horse tethered to a weight on our streets.

Whatever necessity there may be to enforce such a by-law in other cities, the need is doubled in Prince Rupert. With no wide streets for leeway, or pavements to take refuge on, our women and children are at the mercy of runaway teams.

The regulation is entirely to the benefit of the teamowners. As in yesterday's accident, the loss of a valuable horse and the wreckage of a wagon, is the penalty which is liable to fall on the owner, whose team is unprovided with the regulation weight.

ON BEHALF OF THE INDIAN

The interview which Bishop DuVernet gave the Vancouver press on the question of Indian title, reproduced on another page, is well worth reading and paying attention to. The question of the Indian title is one that will not down. The efforts to misrepresent the question, to make it appear as if the Indians are laying claim to the whole of the land, or that they are asking anything other than that the courts should decide the issue, only aggravates the situation, so that not merely justice-lovers, but truth-lovers are compelled to enter the discussion.

Most contemptible of all, is the attitude of the lickspittle press, of which British Columbia has a goodly share, which for the sake of the pap that comes the way of all who care to keep in line, echoes the refrain of "Indians are only Indians." As if that is a reason why honest men should deny them justice?

The white passengers on the Iroquois who were rescued by Indians after the white captain and officers of the vessel had left "to go ashore for help" luckily for themselves were not troubled with the finely aristocratic perceptions of the lickspittle press.

NEWSPAPERS ARE PRAISED

Yes; Some Good Printing Costs Too Much, Too. It's the same as with other good things. The temptation to charge "stiff prices" for high class things, or high class service, is always natural. But it's not always justifiable—not even usually. For in all artistry and craftsmanship the standard is higher—the doom of the commonplace is pronounced. So that, as to printing, high grade work is not apt to cost you more than its worth; still, you can pay more for it at some places than at others—and this shop is one of the "others."

Chicago, April 28.—Daily newspapers as effective advertising mediums were given unstinted praise by President David L. Taylor of the Taylor-Critchfield Advertising Company at a banquet given in his honor by the advertising men of Chicago at the Blackstone Hotel this evening. These statements by one of the recognized advertising authorities of the country, after a discussion of magazines, weeklies, bill boards and other advertising mediums, were received with great applause by the advertising men present.

"I am for the daily newspapers strong, because I appreciate the wonderful vitality of their immense circulation," said President Taylor, who as head of a great advertising agency places millions of dollars' worth of advertising for over six hundred of the leading advertisers of the United States and Canada. "The daily newspaper is a great and quick influence on the public mind. Being the carrier of the everyday news in which we are all interested, the advertising it contains naturally becomes a part of that news.

"The metropolitan daily newspaper can no longer be considered an exclusive city proposition. It is a great big portion of the country within the radius of the city in which it is published. It is a quick-action, rapid-firing gun that gets immediate results.

"I recommend the daily newspapers not only to the general advertiser for publicity, but to the mail order and agricultural advertiser who wants to reach not only the small towns, but also the farming communities within the radius of each city."

Among the other speakers were Senator Young, Editor Robert N. Davis and Prof. C. W. Burkett.

SOLD 320 ACRES Uncle Jerry Put Through Big Land Deal on Saturday

Intending to use the land for speculation some Vancouver capitalists have purchased three hundred and twenty acres adjoining the townsite of New Hazelton from Uncle Jerry. The deal was closed on Saturday by Fisher & Wharton for the Vancouver people and Alfred Carr for Mr. Kugler.

The same people are also dickering for an additional 800 acres near the New Hazelton townsite and Uncle Jerry says the deal will likely be closed this week. The sale price of the land was $50 an acre.
