FANNIE WARD AT MAJESTIC THEATRE

Fannie Ward is the Famous Players' star at the Majestic Theatre tonight and tomorrow in the great five-act drama, "For the Defence." In this production, Miss Ward appears as a petite French girl who, coming to America as a stranger, is suddenly thrown into the midst of tragedy. By an accident she becomes the sole witness of a murder, of which a young man, unknown to her until he renders her needed assistance, is accused. This is one of the most dramatic of Lasky productions and depicts Fannie Ward at her best.

There is also an Eclair Animated Weekly of war bulletins from the various fronts, while the music provided by the Majestic orchestra is one of the brightest features of a splendid show.
