THE COSY CORNER

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

HOW MANY WOMEN

How many women this moon-smitten night
Lie sleepless, smiling, holding each apart,
Like exquisite white roses on her heart,
The wondrous words love whispered her all day,
Fearful lest slumber dim their dear delight.
Oh, happy sisters, through the moon and dew,
Here with my roses, I rejoice with you.

tions of the pigmentary glands, while the others are tonics and cleaners: hydrochlorate of pilocarpine, 6 grains; tincture of jaborandi, 1 ounce; rectified spirit of wine, 1 ounce; rose water 4 ounces; orange flower water, 4 ounces; any perfume desired. Rub into the scalp every night, pouring a little of the mixture into a saucer and applying to the roots of the hair with antiseptic cotton, which is destroyed as soon as used.

APPLE CREAM

Makes a Delicious Sweet

How many women this moon-smitten night
Turn from its wonders lest their heart may break,
And yearning only sleep—yet count awake
Each empty hour—like steps that lead from love—
Praying but rest, but rest—in joy's despite.
Oh, sisters, would tonight your eyes might take
This sleep I banish for my roses' sake.

Peel, core and slice one pound and a half of good cooking apples. Put them into a lined saucepan with half a gill of water, two tablespoonfuls of castor sugar, and the grated rind of one lemon. Stew till quite tender, then rub through a wire sieve and beat well with an eggwhisk. Whip half a pint of cream till quite stiff, stir the apples into it, heap on a glass dish and sprinkle with chopped almonds.

GLOWING SIGNS COMING

Council is Inclined to Favor the Fixing of Electric Adverts.

IN THE SPRING

A Woman's Fancy Seriously Turns to Thoughts of Hats

The important thing in the matter of hats is always to wear what is most becoming, and certainly there is no excuse this season, with hats of every size and conceivable shape, for any woman wearing one that does not suit her style. There are certain women who may wear only small hats, while others seem to demand something larger, more splendid or dashing. But the artistic woman tries to discover what style suits her best and then dresses accordingly, whether she follow the fashions rigidly or not.

The floral turban appears as regularly as spring itself. It seems to be a compromise between the winter and the summer hats, and though each year sees some new development of it, it is nearly always becoming for the reason that flowers soften and tone down nearly every face. One of these floral toques was quite a gorgeous affair of immense yellow and purple pansies. Another was made of large single Russian violets, with four elongated loops of bright blue velvet ribbon at the back. A third, which was very dainty, was of large roses of the palest pink, arranged in symmetrical rows, with several loops of violet velvet ribbon. Turbans such as these are worn, of course, only in the afternoons and with elaborate gowns of foulard, surah and changeable taffeta.

Large hats may this year be worn at all places and seasons; they are used quite as much with the tailored morning suits as with evening gowns; and, in fact, fashion in that respect is now completely reversed. Whereas we used to wear the small hat during the day, considering it more correct to reserve the large picture hat for evening, the exceeding beauty and richness of the new turbans have made them the accepted form of millinery for evening wear.

Ornamental head-dresses are now fashionable for theatre and evening wear, and they certainly impart a great deal of brilliancy to the costume. They may be as simple or as ornate as one pleases. Some are merely a ribbon of tulle twisted round the head and fastened with a crystal buckle, while others are high caps of iridescent gauze ornamented with pearls, aigrettes or feathers.

GREY TOO SOON

Remedy for Restoring Hair that Has Lost Color

For prematurely grey hair, have the following prescription made up, which is not a "dye." One of the ingredients stimulates the secre-

Before long the blaze of the brilliant electric sign will illuminate our streets. J. H. Kelly has applied to the city council for permission to erect one over the Phenix theatre. There was some discussion about the matter in council, Alderman Clayton expressing himself in favor of illuminated signs as they are revenue producers, but remarking that if projecting signs were to be prohibited in some cases (such as his own) they should be prohibited in all cases. Some signs, he said have never been taken down. The question of signs is left meantime in the hands of the streets committee. Mayor Manson inclines towards favoring the permission to erect signs not projecting very far over the sidewalk.

Wants More Time

Eric Rosang has applied for an extra three months for the completion of his contracts on Third avenue and Hays Cove Circle. He pleads the strike as a hindrance, also alleging delay in cross-sectioning by the city. His request went to the streets committee.

Rupert May be There

The Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire in B. C. plan a big splash for the coronation day. They have arranged to hold a procession in Victoria, and are asking all the city fathers of the Province to take part by arranging a car representative of their city. Prince Rupert has been invited and the council are considering it.

Want a Sidewalk

Second avenue residents petitioned the council Monday for a sidewalk between Seventh and Eighth streets. Referred to the streets committee.

To Start Ambulance Class

There is a proposal on foot that a branch of the St. John Ambulance Association shall be organized in Prince Rupert. Steps may shortly be taken to organize a branch here under a medical man who will instruct members.

Ald. Hilditch Improving

Alderman Hilditch is improving. He is able now to sit up. Monday the Mayor and council expressed the hope that he would shortly be back among them again.

Wants a Clean-up Day

Alderman Clayton wants the whole city to have a half holiday for the purpose of cleaning up things. A day in June will be fixed, but Alderman Newton does not want the cleaning process to be compulsory.

ITEMS OF SPORT

The Ontario Football Association has decided to communicate with all provincial associations in Canada with the object of organizing a Canadian Football Association. This will mean the institution of a genuine Canadian championship.

Seats for the international polo matches at Long Island, N. Y., next month are being sold for $5, while boxes will cost from $75 to $200.

A. E. Woods, the ex-champion ten-miler of England, who is now residing in Toronto, wants to meet any man in the world at 10 or 12 or 15 miles.

Harvard university will erect a building for athletic training purposes at a cost of $50,000. This building will be in finish, a modern hotel with accommodations for about fifty men. The building is erected as a memorial to Francis Vardon Burr, who captained the Crimson players in 1908.

Ad Wolgast, instead of being a poor money-maker as a champion, promises to gather in the coin faster than did Battling Nelson in his best days. Starting with the first Brown fight, and including the Moran fight on July 4. Wolgast will have made $54,000 in a little less than five months. He got $6,000 for the first Brown fight, $7,000 for the second Brown go, $4,500 or more for the Memsic battle, $7,500 for Lagrave, $8,000 for Hogan, $7,000 for Burns and $12,000 for Moran.

Carl Morris is the white man's hope, Jack Johnson is the black man's hope, and Hank Peters, the Hagersville Indian, appears to be the red man's hope in this heavy-weight pugilistic squabble.

After their long training trips several major league teams will have to get their real baseball practice during the first two months of the season.

Johnny Kane, who has been a utility performer with the Cubs for several years, has been released to the Vernon Club of the Pacific Coast League.

There will be no free "ladies day" in the Tri-State League this year. The stingy old things.

You can't beat Joe Cantillon. At his Minneapolis ball yard Joe will have girls selling tickets and "Rube" Waddell performing "right on the inside, gents."

Chief Bender of the Philadelphia Athletics has uncovered a new curve. He calls it the "come back."

Connie Mack says that no matter how good a ball player his son Earl may become, he will never play on the Athletics while he is the head of that aggregation. He does not believe in mixing up family affairs in a ball game.

Ottawa Britannias will have all but two or three of last year's paddlers for their war canoe crew.

Dance—Weekly dance every Saturday in the K. of P. Hall 4-26pm
