REMARKABLE DRAMA AT THE WESTHOLME THEATRE

"Her Bitter Cup," the five-act drama at the Westholme, is a remarkable story of the struggles of a dare-devil girl of the slums to provide food and shelter for her starving neighbors. She sticks at nothing to attain her ends, even to selling herself in order that the poor may have enough to eat. The leading role is played by Cleo Madison, who, with Kathleen Kerrigan, wrote the play. As a frame-work on which to display some remarkably clever acting it is a success, but it is difficult to see just what moral those two clever young ladies sought to point in the tale. It might be described as a non-moral story. The staging is superb and better acting has not been screened here. There is a fine Universal Weekly and a Nestor comedy besides.

H. S. Sifton, R. Uehlein, R. W. Earle and E. A. Vincilette, of San Francisco, arrived in town this forenoon on the City of Seattle from the north. They have been big game hunting up the Stikine River since August and have a fine collection of heads with them. Mrs. Earle accompanied the party.

HALIBUT RECORD

The schooner Venus brought in 16,000 pounds of halibut this morning and the Stranger 12,000. They sold to the Booth Company at 10 1/2 cents, a record price for this port. The Corona, with 22,000, sold to the Atlin Company at the same figure and the Aurora, with 2,000, sold to the Cold Storage Company at 10 1/2.

RED CROSS SOCIETY CHANGES QUARTERS

The above headline has nothing to do with nickels and dimes but is simply a notice that the Red Cross sales will now be conducted in the Hart Block, near the Bank of Montreal. Friday's sale will be conducted by Mrs. Besner and Mrs. Morrissey and ladies are again reminded that large quantities of home cooking can be disposed of. There is heavy fighting on the Somme and this means more casualties and a greater demand for Red Cross supplies.
