Captain and Mrs. Wearmouth and baby left for Vancouver on the Prince John yesterday. Captain Wearmouth will qualify as a pilot in the south.

Few are more deeply interested in the war than Rev. Father Bunoz who has had several nephews and cousins in the trenches since the beginning of the war.

"Scotty" Dennis writes that he is recovering nicely from his wounds and hopes to return to the trenches. He met Hugh Killen recently at Epsom. Hugh is well and busy.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Raine, of Digby, leave for Vancouver on Saturday morning. Mr. Raine, who has been on the wireless staff at Digby for some time is being transferred to the Point Grey station.

Mr. Wright, of the Seaton Coal mine, near here, believes he can deliver coal in the city at $7 per ton. Samples of this coal were displayed at the Exhibition and came in for a good deal of attention.

"Billy" Woodworth, who was here last summer on his way to Frisco on a motor boat, is now taking "movies" in Alaska. He has secured many fine glacier and other ice pictures and is now taking a party to Prince of Wales Island where they will "capture" scenes of halibut fishing and marble quarrying.

Mike Krook has received a postcard from his old partner Ivan Dubina, who left here for Russia just before war broke out. Ivan has been a prisoner of war in an Austrian concentration camp for eighteen months. He thanks Mike for money which he sent but does not say how he is faring, as the censor would have cut out all details.

SPLENDID SHOW AT MAJESTIC THEATRE

"Her Shattered Idol," the four-act comedy-drama at the Majestic tonight is more funny than dramatic, in fact it is one of the funniest things ever. A young lady falls desperately in love with a village blacksmith, but her dad has other plans for her. Dad is pretty shrewd and, knowing that opposition would simply bring an elopement, invites the big blacksmith to dinner. His crudeness is so striking in comparison with the behavior of her friends that the young lady becomes disgusted and is cured. The sayings thrown on the screen are highly amusing and the whole story is one of the brightest imaginable. "Helen's Wild Ride" kept everyone on the tip-toe of excitement. A good Mutual Weekly completes a splendid show.

MARY FULLER AT THE WESTHOLME THEATRE

"Thrown to the Lions," the big feature at the Westholme tonight, in which Mary Fuller plays the lead, is a story of modern city life, with the city as the arena and the dangers that await the unsuspecting youth as the lions. Miss Fuller plays the part of a poor chorus girl who is married to Sullivan a notorious "boss," though she is not aware of the character of the man. Complications ensue and there are some exciting moments in a scuffle in a road-house, when the "boss" is shot. Billy Weed, a little comedian, plays protector to the innocent girl and is the cause of the shooting. There are two rollicking comedies to complete the show. There is a big Chaplin feature for Friday at the Westholme.
