ing passengers last evening.

Mrs. Du Vernet left this morning for Shandilla where she will join Bishop Du Vernet who has been in the interior for a few days.

The Japanese brigantine Hokatu Maru arrived in the harbor early this morning loaded to the hatches with salted salmon. After getting her clearance papers here she will leave on her return voyage to Japan.

H. D. Tee, who arrived from Point Grey on Friday to take over his duties at the wireless station, is an old timer here, having been located at Digby five years ago, when things were a little livelier around here than they are now.

A tea will be given by the Queen Mary Chapter of the I. O. D. E. at the residence of Mrs. F. G. Dawson on Thursday, October 19th, from four to six, to raise funds for a contribution to the British

NEW ANGLICAN CHURCH
OPENED AT CEDARVALE

Assisted by the Rev. T. J.
Marsh, of Terrace, Bishop Du Vernet opened the new Anglican Church at Cedarvale last Sunday Morning. The church is a frame building 18 feet by 32 feet and is neatly finished outside. The congregation, which is not large, did well both in the way of subscriptions and also in the way of labor freely given, the central fund of the Diocese meeting the balance of the expense for material. There was a good attendance at the opening service, settlers coming from both sides of the Skeena River.

BLANCHE SWEET AT
WESTHOLME THEATRE

Tonight sees the opening of the Westholme Theatre under the management of Ed. Stilwell, when the Lasky feature "The Sowers" will be produced. It is a filmed version of Henry Seton Merri-man's widely read novel and deals with the story of the struggles of the Russian people towards political and industrial freedom.
Blanche Sweet appears in the leading role, in a part which will appeal to the sympathies of all.
There is a strong supporting company, including Thos. Meighan, one of the most brilliant of young movie actors. There is also an Eclair Animated Gazette, showing the latest war pictures.
There will be a special musical program by the Stilwell-Balagno orchestra.

ARCADE CAFE

From the Busy Bee to the new Arcade Cafe is quite a jump if one compares the two establishments. But it is one of many jumps Billy Georgalas has made during his career as a restaurateur. He thoroughly learned his business in the large cities of Europe and since the severance of his connection with the Busy Bee has worked in Dawson, Fairbanks, Iditarod and Nome, returning to Prince Rupert fully confident that this is the place in which to establish a large catering business on up-to-date lines.
He has as partner in the new Arcade Cafe H. Killas, who is also an old timer, and they have certainly demonstrated their confidence in Rupert by the lavishness of their business enterprise.

Everything is new in the Arcade Cafe, spotless and in excellent taste, with a daintiness about it that is specially inviting. This is as true of the kitchen in the rear as it is of the large room where crowds will gather to feast.
The floor and walls of the kitchen are of concrete, which is a protection against fire and easily kept perfectly clean. Such a worthy enterprise will undoubtedly receive liberal patronage.

YUKON RECRUITS

There was a company of a hundred and twenty sturdy recruits from the Yukon on board the Prince Rupert this morning bound for Victoria. The party is in charge of Governor Black who took his commission some time ago. They were a remarkably fit looking bunch who would be capable of giving the Germans a hot time in hand to hand fighting.
They arrived here to the strains of "Tipperary."
