Blanche Sweet, at the Westholme
Theatre tonight.

RUSSIAN DRAMA AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

There was a packed house at the Westholme last night when a splendid Famous Players' program was presented, with Blanche Sweet in the lead. "The Sowers" is a story of Russia which throws a vivid light on the workings of the secret police of that country in the days when its people were struggling for political and industrial freedom. The staging of the drama is of the finest, the scenes of Russian life being splendidly portrayed. Blanche Sweet plays a difficult role with her usual ability.

An Eclair Gazette provides several very fine war views, including pictures of some of the notabilities of the western fighting line. "Her Invisible Husband" a comic story of a dream, winds up a fine show, in which the music is a special feature. The orchestra gave a splendid rendering of the overture to "William Tell" last night.

Bulger & Denike have now a loop line connecting them with Montreal over the G. T. P. wire.
One message per day passes from Montreal to this store in the shape of a time signal for the purpose of checking up the time regulator.
