Classified - Advertisements

One of the best services the modern newspaper gives the public is in the classified advertisement columns. There buyer and seller, employer and worker, landlord and tenant, and a host of others meet on common ground. To put this modern convenience in reach of everyone the News will reduce its rate to a nominal price of a cent a word per insertion. Minimum charge of 25 cents. Here is our Classified Advertising Column for today. Watch it grow.

WILL HOLD OPEN SESSION

Conciliation Board Makes Important Announcement

RESULT OF PROTEST Secret Meeting Aroused the Opposition of the Men—Everything in Future Will Be Done in Public.

(Canadian Press Dispatch) Lethbridge, May 4.—As a result of the protest of the miners the conciliation board which has been sitting behind closed doors announced this morning that in future all sessions will be held openly, the public and representatives of the press being admitted. If at any time it is deemed necessary to return to the secret method again, the board will so order. Witnesses were heard this morning regarding dockage and timber methods. The board will go to Fernie and hold its first session in that place on Friday.

Premier McBride Gives Interview at Minneapolis

ABOUT RECIPROCIY Says People of B. C. are Satisfied with Conditions as They Are and See no Reasons for a Change.

(Canadian Press Dispatch) Minneapolis, May 4.—Premier McBride and party arrived here today and are conferring with Great Northern officials on railway matters in which railway the province is interested. Asked regarding reciprocity Premier McBride only would say that he was expressing the overwhelming sentiment of the people of the province that the people of British Columbia were quite satisfied with economic conditions as they are. "We feel," he said, "our material prosperity has been advanced under existing conditions and we can see no reason for a change."

METHODIST CONFERENCE

This Morning's Business Unsuccessful. Vote Not Taken

In the First Methodist Church this morning under the presidency of the Rev. G. H. Raley, the Methodist Conference was again in session, but nothing eventful in the way of church business was transacted. The vote on the question of church union has yet to be taken, and the Conference will sit until a late hour tonight to wind up the business in hand.

WIRELESS MAN SICK

Wm. B. Phillips of S. S. Prince Rupert in Hospital

William B. Phillips, wireless operator on the Prince Rupert, was removed to the hospital this morning suffering from a serious attack of pleurisy. He is being attended to by Dr. Reddie, and at noon was reported to be doing as well as could be expected.

His place on the Rupert will probably be taken temporarily by Mr. J. E. Harker of the Digby Island Wireless station, who has signalled below for permission to fill the gap.

FOR PREVENTION

For sterilizing bandages and instruments a new apparatus has been installed at the General Hospital. The things are put inside of a circular cistern and steam is turned on to a heat of 24° degrees and after half an hour every germ within that cistern is as dead as a door nail. The sterilizer cost $250.
