DOUBLE FEATURE AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

Tonight there is a big double feature show at the Westholme when, for tonight only, Mary Fuller is presented in "The Huntress of Men," a great five-act society comedy-drama, in which Miss Fuller plays the part of the butterfly. The old butler of "The Million Dollar Mystery" plays a prominent part in this feature. It is splendidly staged and the acting leaves nothing to be desired.

Tonight and tomorrow, the second episode of "Peg O' The Ring" is screened. With such stars as Grace Cunard, Francis Ford and Eddie Polo in the leading parts, this serial is proving a big attraction. The circus scenes are of the most realistic description.

RED CROSS SALE

Friday's sale of home cooking in aid of the funds of the Red Cross Society will be conducted by Mrs. McClymont and Mrs. A. M. Manson. Our boys have been through heavy fighting recently and the casualty lists are ever growing, so that the demand for hospital supplies is still increasing. Ladies are invited to bring what they can in the way of cakes etc., as a large supply can always be disposed of.

"IT'S AN ILL WIND"

One afternoon during the great push (the Liverpool Post relates) a young Liverpool journalist, now an artillery signaller, was sheltering with a comrade from intense fire in a small trench they had made not far from their dug-out. His companion expressed a longing for a cup of tea. A stove and water were at hand, but neither had an emergency ration of tea and sugar. Not ten seconds after the wish was uttered a strong Hun shell dropped amid a heap of infantry rations some 150 yards away, and a badly bent tin of tea and sugar landed at their feet. The contents were intact, and they had their tea.—Ex.

CITY OF PRINCE RUPERT

ATTENTION VOTERS

Persons who hold lots under agreements, or assignment of agreement, must make a declaration giving particulars of their title, before the last day of November. Any person neglecting to take such declaration will not be entered on the voters' list.

It is impossible for me to ascertain the names of agreement holders unless they come in personally.

It will greatly facilitate matters if persons wishing to make declaration bring their agreements, so that I may inspect them and thus prevent errors. Reference to old voters' lists satisfies me that only a small proportion of agreement holders have registered in past years. This, I believe, has happened because people wrongly think their names will be inserted without any action on their part. I therefore call special attention to the necessity of agreement holders making declarations.
