Pauline Frederick in "The Moment Before" at the Westholme Theatre tonight.

PAULINE FREDERICK AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

Pauline Frederick, in "The Moment Before," is the big attraction at the Westholme Theatre tonight. This powerful drama written by Israel Zangwill, the famous English novelist, is wonderfully reproduced on the screen. It is full of color and action and Miss Frederick makes the most of her part as Madge, the gipsy girl who is forced to marry John the Gipsy, whom she hates and despises, while she is later given an opportunity to marry the heir to a dukedom. It is an intensely dramatic tale, the elements of which have been faithfully and vividly preserved, and indeed enhanced, in this unique screen offering. There is a splendid musical program and a good comedy as well, making up a very fine show.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The Germans evacuated Fort Vaux according to a pre-arranged plan. The French had a good deal to do with the making of the German plan.

Poor Tino is again in trouble, thanks to his writing compromising letters to Der Kaiser. He is working hard for admission to a nice quiet residence in Crete or some equally secluded spot.

Norway is still the victim of the Kaiser's spleen. The wires between Christiania and Berlin must be getting pretty hot these days.

That Jiul Valley must be pretty long. The Rumanians have been chasing the Teutons through it for the past three days and they don't seem to be through yet.

CITY OF PRINCE RUPERT

ATTENTION VOTERS
Persons who hold lots under agreements, or assignment of agreement, must make a declaration giving particulars of their title, before the last day of November. Any person neglecting to take such declaration will not be entered on the voters' list.

It is impossible for me to ascertain the names of agreement holders unless they come in personally.

It will greatly facilitate matters if persons wishing to make declaration bring their agreements, so that I may inspect them and thus prevent errors.

Reference to old voters' lists satisfies me that only a small proportion of agreement holders have registered in past years. This, I believe, has happened because people wrongly think their names will be inserted without any action on their part. I therefore call special attention to the necessity of agreement holders making declarations.

FRED PETERS, City Clerk.
