Coughing scatters germs —Stop it

Coughing increases the irritation of the already inflamed mucous membranes and is moreover apt to carry disease to others.

Mathieu's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil promptly stops coughing, and soon, thanks to its tonic properties, effects a permanent cure.

The wonderful popularity of Mathieu's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil is specially due to its great value as a permanent lung and bronchial healer. Sold everywhere, 35c large bottles.

J. L. MATHIEU CO., Prop., Sherbrooke, P.Q.

Per bottles are supplied also in cases that are sent by mail, when necessary, and are sent by mail, when necessary, and are sent by mail, when necessary.

NOTICE TO BELGIANS RESIDENT IN CANADA

The Consulate General of Belgium at Ottawa has just addressed the following communication to the editor:

A ministerial order dated the 15th of October, 1916, extends to the Belgians living in Canada the provisions of the Decree of the 21st of July last.

As a consequence all Belgians born after the 30th of June, 1876, and before the 1st of July, 1898, shall before the 1st of December, 1916, duly fill registration forms and address same either to said Consulate General or to the nearest Belgian Consul.

Registration forms will be supplied by the nearest Belgian Consul on either verbal or written application.

Married men born after 1894 and single men born after the 30th of June, 1886, will be summoned to the nearest Belgian Consulate, where their obligations will be explained to them. If fit for service, they will be transported to the Belgian Recruiting Commission of Folkstone, England.

Married men born before 1895 and single men born before the 1st of July, 1886, may apply for a delay provided since any date prior to the 21st of June they have been in the employ either of concerns engaged in the production of war material or of any service of general utility. Such application shall be made in the registration form. Those who have not applied for a delay or who have been refused same will be summoned to the nearest Belgian Consulate, on a date to be determined by future provisions, to be medically examined and, if found fit, transported to the Belgian Recruiting Commission of Folkstone, England.

EMINENT 'CELLIST COMING TO RUPERT

In the forthcoming visit to Prince Rupert of Miss Maud Scruby, A. R. C. M., L. R. A. M., lovers of good music are promised a rare treat. Miss Scruby is a 'cello player of note and the following appreciation from the Toronto Globe of April 5th, 1916, speaks for itself:

"Miss Maud Scruby, who comes from London, England, where she had the distinction of deputizing for the eminent solo 'cellist, Mons. Holman, gave a very interesting violoncello recital last evening. She has won very eulogistic notices from the leading London critics. Last night her playing in compositions by Schumann, Boccherini, Saint-Saens, Popper, MacDowell and Bridge, won her a most favorable verdict from her audience. She not only commands a resonant and sympathetic singing tone, but has a clear-cut and fluent technique."

Under the auspices of the Queen Mary Chapter of the I. O. D. E. Miss Scruby will perform at a concert to be given in the Empress Theatre on Tuesday evening, November 23rd, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the patriotic purposes of the order.

2,000,000 Belgians Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flags are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

Have you ever noted how an audience yawns in the face of an uninspired speaker?

On the other hand, have you noted how an audience will lean forward and grasp the chair arms when the speaker reveals enthusiasm?

Enthusiasm is the buoyant expression of truth. To impart belief in anything, a man must believe it deeply himself. We call such a man an enthusiast.

This applies to the written word also—particularly to advertisements. When the manufacturer really believes in his wares, his enthusiasm will almost inevitably find expression in Advertising. And enthusiasm will be contagious—his audience—the readers of the newspaper—will, figuratively speaking, "lean forward and listen intently."

To be convincing an advertisement must convey an unmistakable impression of enthusiasm. This it will only do when the article advertised has inherent worth.

Thus we have:

Sincerity -- Enthusiasm -- Advertising:
Three mighty forces, close-linked.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper. If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumden Building, Toronto.
