CITY OF PRINCE RUPERT ATTENTION VOTERS

Persons who hold lots under agreements, or assignment of agreement, must make a declaration giving particulars of their title, before the last day of November. Any person neglecting to take such declaration will not be entered on the voters' list.

It is impossible for me to ascertain the names of agreement holders unless they come in personally.

It will greatly facilitate matters if persons wishing to make declaration bring their agreements, so that I may inspect them and thus prevent errors.

Reference to old voters' lists satisfies me that only a small proportion of agreement holders have registered in past years. This, I believe, has happened because people wrongly think their names will be inserted without any action on their part. I therefore call special attention to the necessity of agreement holders making declarations.

FRED PETERS, City Clerk.

MAGISTRATE DISMISSED THE RUPERT HOTEL CASE

(Continued From Page One.) suggested that they had time for a drink so they went down to the Rupert Hotel. Just as they entered the bar, Grant Thorburn, the bartender, was clearing people out as it was on closing time. His own impression was that it was about a minute or so to ten, as he had previously judged that they had just time for a drink. They were refused drinks by the bartender, when Kenny Munro came in, evidently with the intention of putting out the lights or closing up. Witness said to him, "Here, Kenny, can't we have a drink?" Mr. Munro replied, "Certainly". Kenny Munro went to the bar and brought them each a drink. He was certain that it was not then ten o'clock. He flatly contradicted the story of W. H. Wright as to their having already had a drink before Mr. Munro came in. They had never been at the bar, but stood just inside the door.

Grant Thorburn, the bartender, was called. He testified that Messrs. Wright, Sweet and Tite had never ordered or been served with drinks in the bar that evening. This closed the case, and Magistrate McMullin immediately dismissed it on both counts.

LOUISE BEAUDET AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

Louise Beaudet, the famous movie star, is the big attraction at the Westholme tonight in "The Road of Many Turnings." It is a story rich in human interest; is splendidly staged and acted, and should prove an enjoyable feature. Rose Melville appears as "Sis Holkins" in "Setting the Fashion," a highly amusing comedy. There is also a Ford Gazette featuring a buffalo hunt in which a thousand Indians take part. There is a series of funny cartoons and also a display of the latest in fall millinery.

For those who did not see it last night, "Alien Souls," in which Mr. and Mrs. Sessue Hayakawa, the famous Japanese actors, are in the leading parts, will be screened at the Majestic Theatre.

COMBINED SMOKER WAS BIG SUCCESS

The combined smoker of the Sons of England and St. Andrew's Societies in the McIntyre Hall last evening was a bright and breezy entertainment. S. King, president of the Sons of England, and S. D. Macdonald, president of St. Andrew's Society, were joint chairmen, and during the evening each made a short, pithy speech welcoming the boys. There was a varied and thoroughly enjoyable musical program, songs being rendered by George Waddell, Frank Moore, Seaman Brady, Seaman Hawkins, Meth Davies, Robert Dowther, Steward Warner, C. W. W. Gauld, Petty Officer Cossar, J. E. Davey, S. Darton and A. Clapperton, while A. Clapperton and G. Waddell sang a duet.

Principal Brady gave a recitation in splendid style; Messrs. Edmunds and Duffy played mandoline selections, and Piper Sturgeon woke the echoes with a bagpipe selection. Each item was enthusiastically received and encores were the order of the evening; the smokes went round, and a substantial lunch of sandwiches, cakes, tea and coffee was prepared by Mrs. Leek and Mrs. Kelly and handed round by the members of the joint committee. Canon Rix delivered a bright little patriotic address. Petty officer Cossar thanked the societies for the pleasant evening provided and the gathering broke up with the singing of "Rule Britannia" and "God Save the King".
