A public meeting is called in the Carpenters' Hall Friday, November 24, at 8 p. m., for the purpose of completing a Platform and the organization of a Prince Rupert Municipal Movement. The Trades and Labor Council requests the privilege of placing four Aldermanic candidates on the ticket. ATTENTION VOTERS

Persons who hold lots under agreements, or assignment of agreement, must make a declaration giving particulars of their title, before the last day of November. Any person neglecting to take such declaration will not be entered on the voters' list.

It is impossible for me to ascertain the names of agreement holders unless they come in personally.

It will greatly facilitate matters if persons wishing to make declaration bring their agreements, so that I may inspect them and thus prevent errors.

Reference to old voters' lists satisfies me that only a small proportion of agreement holders have registered in past years. This, I believe, has happened because people wrongly think their names will be inserted without any action on their part. I therefore call special attention to the necessity of agreement holders making declarations.

FRED PETERS, City Clerk.

HAZEL DAWN AT THE WESTHOLME TONIGHT

The captivating Hazel Dawn and Irving Cummings are the stars at the Westholme tonight in the five-act Famous Players feature, "The Feud Girl." It is a story of the mountains of northern Georgia in the days when the various families in that care-free country were always at "daggers-drawn." The scenes are actually laid in this wild country and the story carries with it all the strength and force of this rugged country. Mountaineers who had actually taken part in the feuds were engaged to appear in the various scenes and the result is one of the most realistic productions ever staged. Miss Dawn is a typical daughter of the mountains and the story of her betrayal should make a strong appeal to those who see this great picture.

Helen Holmes, the ever-popular star of "The Girl and the Game," appears in another episode of this exciting railroad serial, completing a fine show.

Joe Bourgon and Wm. Croteau, two of the witnesses in the Coyle-McNeil case, left for their homes near Telkwa early this morning.
