SERGE AND SILK COAT SUIT

A few wise designers have ventured to prophesy a vogue for green and blue in the wake of the flood of red which has rushed upon us this season, and some lovely models have been made up in these combined shades. Take for example this suit. The design is exceedingly chic and the material is a diagonal serge in the new king's blue. Insert pieces in skirt and coat are green taffeta. The idea of inset pieces of taffeta is new and effective, and may be copied in self-tone silk with equally good results.

HOUSEHOLD NOTES

Apt to Come in Useful Now and Then
By sprinkling a goodly amount of salt over a carpet five or ten minutes before sweeping, there will be little dust raised when the sweeping is done.
Have you a "silent" musical instrument in your home? Unless it's ANCHORED there by sentiment, let a "for sale" ad in The Daily News find a buyer for it.

THE COSY CORNER

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Neil McNeill was the hostess of an exceedingly smart Bridge party on Saturday afternoon. The drawing rooms were profusely decorated with pink and white carnations and presented a charming appearance. Mrs. McNeill was gowned in a handsome costume of blue rajah, and was assisted by Miss Brown and Miss McMaster. The prize winners were Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Ward and Mrs. McMaster. The players were Mrs. Stanley Spain, Mrs. D. G. Stewart, Mrs. W. E. Burritt, Mrs. Stewart Johnson, Mrs. Helmers, Mrs. McLennan, Mrs. Clements, Mrs. Tremayne, Mrs. Craig, Miss Craig, Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. McMaster, Mrs. Cade, Mrs. Vernor Smith, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Naden, Mrs. H. L. Johnston, Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Lamont and Miss Pinder also came in to tea.

Mrs. Daniel McLeod entertained pleasantly at cards on Thursday afternoon. Two tables of Bridge and one of Five Hundred were made up. Mrs. Stewart Johnson was the prize winner at the Bridge, while Miss Holby won the Five Hundred prize, the guests included: Mrs. Wark, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Stewart Johnson, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Helmers, Mrs. McMordie, Miss Froud, Miss Holby, Miss Grant, Miss Delorme.

Mrs. Dawson was also a hostess on Thursday, entertaining in honor of Mrs. Stork who is leaving shortly on a visit to England. Mrs. Sweet and Mrs. Stork were the fortunate prize-winners. The guests were: Mrs. D. G. Stewart, Mrs. J. V. Austin, Mrs. C. B. Lockhart, Mrs. Amott, Mrs. McCaffery, Mrs. Hugh Dunn, Mrs. Reddie, Mrs. Anderson.

Mrs. Clements gave a small but delightful Bridge on Saturday evening at which Mrs. Vernor Smith captured the star prize. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Pillsbury, Mr. and Mrs. McLennan, Mrs. Stewart Johnson, Miss Milligan, Miss Johnstone, Dr. and Mrs. Tremayne, Mr. H. P. Wilson and Mr. Foster.

Mrs. DuVernet entertained at the tea hour on Saturday in honor of Mrs. Horace DuVernet.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace DuVernet left yesterday morning for their home at Kitsumkalum.

Mr. O. B. Smith, manager of the famous Granby mine at Phoenix, left this morning on a trip to Goose Bay.

Mrs. Alan Kennedy who has been visiting her daughter Mrs. R. A. McMordie, left this morning for her home in Spokane.

DOWN AND OUT

"Down and out" is a phrase we use too oft in a heedless, careless way. Because one battle a man may lose "He is down and out," the scoffers say. But many have risen to win renown. Who have felt the sting of fate's knotted knot; It doesn't follow because he's down, That a man has also been counted out.

There's always a chance to rise again; If a man has faith in himself and tries. He can win the cheers of his fellow men And some time capture the golden prize. Today's defeat isn't worth a frown. Keep your eyes ahead and your courage stout, It doesn't follow because you're down

That you have also been counted out.

"Down and out!" Man is never that If he has the courage to start again; If Fate has humbled and knocked him flat. He still can smile on his fellow men. If he has the courage to hide his frown Remember this as you go about, Although today he is surely down It's a mortal cinch that he isn't out. —Edgar A. Guest

KISSES FOR EVERYBODY

Quaint Old Country Custom—Works Also in Canada

A quaint kissing custom still exists in the pretty little Wiltshire town of Hungerford. An ancient toll is claimed by the authorities on Easter Monday from every man and woman in the town. From the men the toll is one penny, but that imposed on the women is a kiss! The custom is maintained by two beadles, who march from house to house, and levy their quaint taxes. After the bead have had their innings, every man is at liberty to embrace any girl he meets. And Hungerford is crowded with visitors on Easter Monday.

USEFUL TO HOUSEWIVES

Half a Dozen Handy Household Hints

Badly stained knives may be made to look as good as new by rubbing on charcoal.

If a soft piece of homemade bread is rubbed on a scorch on woollen goods it will remove it entirely.

Vegetables will take longer to cook, but will be much nicer and of better color if boiled uncovered.

A tasty way of using left over boiled rice is to put a piece of butter in the frying pan and adding the rice when the butter sizzles. Fry until brown.

To make celery firm and crisp and with a salty flavor liked by most people, clean as usual and soak in cold, salty water for an hour before serving.

Eggs will keep well packed in dry salt with the small end down. Grease the shell with lard before packing, and pour melted lard over the top layer of salt.

When boiling cabbage, cut the cabbage in quarters and slip each quarter into a separate cheesecloth bag. Then when it is cooked it comes out intact.

To remove the fat from soup or broth intended for an invalid, it is not necessary to allow it to become cold, as is usually done. Instead, place a fine wire sieve on ice, until it is thoroughly chilled, and pour the liquid through this. If the liquid is partially cooled the fat will solidify on the cold wire and the broth will be ready for use immediately.

To wash chamois gloves and keep them soft, first put the gloves on the hands, using lukewarm water and pure soap. Wash in this later until the gloves are thoroughly cleansed, then rinse in clear water of the same temperature, but before taking off the gloves, cover them again with a lather of the soap. Allow them to dry in the shape.

ITEMS OF SPORT

In reply to Enquirer: Sam Langford is a Canadian. He was born at Weymouth, Nova Scotia, March 4, 1886.

Berlin is to have a permanent stadium in the center of the city. It has nothing to do with the Olympic stadium which is planned for Grunewald, the woods west of Berlin.

News comes from Brandon that Queen's Ideal has made the fastest time at the track so far this year. The time was 2.32 for the mile, which is considered fast for so early in the spring.

The King has been pleased to intimate that he will present a cup to be sailed for by the "A" class schooners, yawls and ketches above 23 metres in the first Festival of the International Yacht Racing, of which His Majesty is patron. The regatta will take place off Spithead on August 7 and 8.

Battling Nelson will box Danny Decker June 17 before Al Herford's club in Baltimore.

Champion Gotch has practically accepted Hackenschmidt's challenge for a world's championship match to be held in Chicago, probably at the American League baseball park, on Labor Day. Gotch has been offered $20,000 for his end, while Hackenschmidt will work on the percentage basis.

OUT OF THE BOX

Spokane is getting a flying start in this race for the flag, but Seattle is holding the place nicely and Vancouver is coming up at the expense of Tacoma. Tacoma may be expected to take a brace soon, and Portland will get better, so if Victoria will only get going it will be a merry scrap yet for that bunting.

Dan McGann, the old New York-Milwaukee player, who committed suicide, left an estate of $35,000.

BUDGET OF NEWS

Prof. Halkett is Studying Conditions for Developing Salmon Industry—Experimental Farm to be Started to Help Agriculturalists.

(Special Correspondence)
Massett, May 7.—Professor Halkett of the Marine and Fisheries Department, is on Massett Inlet investigating the habits of salmon, particularly the "sockeye." With Fisheries Inspector C. Harrison and Indian Agent Thomas Deasy the Professor visited Naden, Ain, Mammom, Awne and other streams on Massett Inlet.

A road party cleared a trail between the new townsite of Massett and the Indian town at the entrance to Massett Sound.

The whaling station at Naden Harbor is receiving a number of whales and treating same for export.

An experimental garden under the control of the Dominion Government, has been started on the Indian reserve at Massett. Ground has been cleared and seeds of various kinds planted at the Indian Agency. The Indian school children and older persons are receiving lessons in gardening and a larger area of ground than formerly will be under cultivation on the reserve.

The residence for Dr. A. Ross Fraser has been completed; streets are being cleared in Massett townsite; James Martin's large residence is in course of erection and several new buildings are under way on Delkatla Bay.

Captain Daniel Stanley is recovering from a severe attack of illness and will take charge of the gasoline launch recently purchased by him in Prince Rupert.
