WONDERFUL CLOCK IN STRASBURG CATHEDRAL

The clock in Strasburg Cathedral is one of the most wonderful of its kind. It was first made in 1574, and went through various phases till it was remade in 1842, and since that date has been in perfect working order. This clock not only tells the time of day, but the month, the day of the month, and all the movable feast days of the Catholic Church. A statue of Apollo points out the day of the month and the name of the saint corresponding to that day. The clock shows the rising and setting of the sun, the diurnal motion of the moon round the earth, its passages over the meridian, the phases of the moon, and the eclipses of both sun and moon.

Allegorical figures in chariots representing the days of the week drive into view, appearing each day in proper order: On Sunday, Apollo; Monday, Diana; Tuesday, Mars; Wednesday, Jupiter, armed with a thunderbolt; Thursday, Thor; Friday, Venus, and Saturday, Saturn.

At a quarter past the hour a child comes forward and strikes a bell once; at half past a youth strikes the bell twice; at a quarter to the hour a middle-aged man strikes it three times; and just before the hour a tottering old man strikes the bell four times. Then a figure of death steps forward and solemnly strikes the hour.

On the stroke of twelve, the twelve Apostles appear, each one bowing as he passes the figure of Christ, who stands with hands uplifted in blessing, and as the procession passes, a cock crows three times in a very life-like manner and flaps its wings.—Ex.

ANOTHER LOCAL MAN IS KILLED IN ACTION

Malcolm Smith, a brother of Alex. Smith of Dominion Cannery, has been killed in action on the Somme front. Malcolm was well known along the Skeena river, having been in this district for a number of years. Having the sight of only one eye, he had great difficulty in getting to the front, though he was a crack shot.
Ultimately he managed it and has now sacrificed his life for his country.

Mr. Smith also has a brother-in-law a prisoner of war in Austria. He was on board a British vessel which was torpedoed in the Mediterranean and was taken to port by the Austrian submarine crew.

FROM FAR AND NEAR

The only approach to wetness at midnight on New Year's Eve in Seattle was what came from above in the shape of snow. As a result of the city having gone dry 1917 was greeted in the most decorous fashion. The celebration was in marked contrast to previous fetes.

Fourteen hundred men engaged in shipbuilding in Portland, Ore., are on strike. Both sides are emphatic in declaring that no compromise will be made.

Alaska's mineral production for 1916 is valued at $50,900,000, an increase of 54 per cent over 1915.
Heavy exports of copper are responsible for the big increase.
Gold shows a small increase.

Denmark is beginning to feel the pinch of war times and the government is taking steps to conserve the food and fuel supplies. Rye bread, the staple bread of the country, has for some time been mixed with ten per cent of barley and this is likely to be increased to twenty per cent.

Prof. Franklin Bobbitt, of the University of Chicago, says that public schools are only 50 per cent efficient. He says, "We have passed the quill pen stage in education. We are now at the typewriter stage. If our schools were properly equipped they could do in half a day what they now do in a whole day."

Perched on top of a disabled hydroplane and half frozen by the waves that dashed over him for two hours, T. K. Okuri, a Japanese aviation student was rescued from a perilous position four miles off Staten Island the other day. The captain of a tugboat noticed him frantically waving for help and effected a rescue.
The hydroplane was lost.

FAMOUS PLAYERS' COMEDY AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

This is Famous Players' night at the Westholme, when Donald Brian is presented in "The Smugglers," a comedy-drama in which fun predominates. It is the story of the loss of a $20,000 necklace by the wife of John Battleby Watts, a wealthy promoter and breakfast food manufacturer. The story abounds with funny situations which are staged in splendid fashion. There is a strong supporting cast and Donald Brian is a host in himself as a laughter-producer.
