JOHN P. ENSCH LEFT PROPERTY TO THE CITY

City Solicitor Peters, at the city council on Monday night, reported that, by the will of John P. Ensch, who was killed at the front, four lots in the city had been left to the city for the purpose of creating a playground for children. Mr. Peters said that a man named Henry Engalts appeared to have an undivided half interest in one of the lots. The city could not use for the purpose mentioned, property in which another man holds an interest and it is proposed that the city buy the interest of the other holder or sell the Ensch interest.

A bylaw was submitted accepting the gift from the late Mr. Ensch after which the following resolution was passed on the motion of Ald. McMeekin, seconded by Ald. Casey:

That this council greatly appreciates the action of the said John P. Ensch in leaving to this city all that he owned, for the purpose of benefitting the children of Prince Rupert.

Mr. Ensch showed himself to be a brave soldier, and has paid the supreme sacrifice. It is most pleasing to note that not only did he possess the pluck necessary to go to the war, but that he also, during the last days of his life, should make over his property for a purpose which showed that he was not only a good soldier but a most excellent citizen, one who had at heart the best interests of the city in which he had made his home.

And be it further resolved that this resolution be extended on the minutes of the council.
