

SEVEN YEARS TORTURE

Nothing Helped Him Until He Took "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

ALBERT VARNER

Buckingham, Que., May 3rd, 1915. For seven years, I suffered terribly from Severe Headaches and Indigestion. I had belching gas from the stomach, bitter stuff would come up into my mouth after eating, while at times I had nausea and vomiting, and had chronic Constipation. I went to several doctors and wrote to a specialist in Boston but without benefit. I tried many remedies but nothing did me good. Finally, a friend advised "Fruit-a-tives". I took this grand fruit medicine and it made me well. I am grateful to "Fruit-a-tives", and to everyone who has miserable health with Constipation and Indigestion and Bad Stomach, I say take "Fruit-a-tives", and you will get well! ALBERT VARNER.

business, which at this moment is to hang on to his job by the skin of his teeth. Australia is very, very British—perhaps more British than Canada—but not British enough to do what Premier Hughes wanted to do to it. With Australia and South Africa represented at the conference by deputies, Canada and New Zealand will be the only overseas states to send plenipotentiaries. The chances are that Premier Borden will be more plenipotentiary than his comrade of New Zealand, which is a democratic country and very insistent that its Premier should consult the people first and make his answers afterwards.

Premier Borden, on the other hand, has developed a habit since the war began of doing things first and explaining or neglecting to explain them afterwards. Premier Borden does a lot of governing by order-in-council, which, of course, is the good old Tory way of doing it. By order-in-council we have "his National Registration movement, which aims to mark time until the government can see what happens. By order-in-council, we also have Sir George Perley, Overseas Minister of Militia, the first Canadian cabinet minister we have seen fit to keep in London since Confederation fifty years ago. Sir George Perley, as Overseas Minister of Militia, marks a change in our constitution which may be epochal.

Sir George Perley's office in Victoria street is only three or four blocks away from Downing Street. He is, therefore, in close touch with the Imperial Government physically, and, if reports are true, in even closer touch spiritually. Sir George has become saturated with the London atmosphere, and is now very, very English, which is the most natural metamorphosis in the world for a gentleman who was born in the United States. Sir George is one of those staunch democrats, quite prevalent in the United States, who dearly love a country that can make them knights and baronets. Sir George is said to be working for a peerage. Knowing Sir George's tendencies, Parliament does not reckon on his acting as a brake on Premier Borden's impulsiveness. We may take it for granted that five great minds—Lloyd George, Milner, Curzon, Carson and Balfour—will concentrate their argument on one lone premier from overseas. What chance has the poor fellow against this brilliant attack? They will surround and envelope and scorch his back hair like a curtain of fire. Naturally they will ask him for all that England would like to have from Canada, and we would be glad to feel that Premier Borden will answer by offering all that Canada can afford to give. But this is not Parliament's experience of Premier Borden. When he gets one of those promising moods on he would part with his suspenders—or anybody else's.

Canada will have her own troubles after the war—troubles she has been glad to assume for love of the mother country. Not to mention the treasure of blood Canada has spent, there will be a national debt of staggering proportions, taxes such as run not in the memory of man, and interest charges and a pension list that will aggregate one hundred million dollars a year. All told, it will take about three hundred and fifty million dollars a year to see us through. Some have alluded to this as a man's burden on a boy's neck, but Canada cheerfully bears it as the price of her duty to the British Empire. Canada has done, and continues to do, her bit, fights for the motherland and pays her way. When the war is over she will have a big bill to foot. The question everybody is asking now is whether Premier Borden intends doing anything while in England to make it bigger.—H. F. Gadsby.

2,000,000 Belgians Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Belgian Relief Fund

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flags are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

ADVERTISED GOODS

THE ROAD TO THE RIGHT.

YOU'VE met at least one of those few good old souls, who are constantly getting the worst of it when shopping, who don't believe in advertising. A hundred disappointing and instructive experiences have failed to teach him their plain lesson.

When he bought his first watch he was beguiled into buying one without a known name or a trustworthy guarantee. That watch—a poor timekeeper—cost him dearly by reason of missed appointments and missed trains, and for frequent repairs. Yet he paid the price of a good watch.

It is the same story with regard to his underwear, his shoes, and his fountain pen.

This good old soul's case is not unique. Many of us, if the truth be confessed, resemble him; we allow ourselves to be sold merchandise with an unknown brand or trade mark instead of buying merchandise which is well known to us through the medium of advertising. In slang language, we get "stung" pretty often.

In most of these cases we have ourselves to blame, for "the road to the right" thing to buy has been made plain by advertising.

There is no good reason for passing by the known thing, soundly guaranteed, to buy a dubious article, which, quality for quality, cannot be cheaper than the known, branded article.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
