

SEVEN YEARS TORTURE

Nothing Helped Him Until He Took "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

ALBERT VARNER
Buckingham, Que., May 3rd, 1915.
For seven years, I suffered terribly from Severe Headaches and Indigestion. I had belching gas from the stomach, bitter stuff would come up into my mouth after eating, while at times I had nausea and vomiting, and had chronic Constipation. I went to several doctors and wrote to a specialist in Boston but without benefit. I tried many remedies but nothing did me good. Finally, a friend advised "Fruit-a-tives". I took this grand fruit medicine and it made me well. I am grateful to "Fruit-a-tives", and to everyone who has miserable health with Constipation and Indigestion and Bad Stomach, I say take "Fruit-a-tives", and you will get well.

WAR MAY NOT FOLLOW DIPLOMATIC RUPTURE

The breaking off of international relations does not necessarily mean that war is bound to follow, though the situation which has arisen is usually so serious as to lead to hostilities. The recall of an ambassador usually accompanies a declaration of war, following an ultimatum, the terms of which have not been complied with. The situation which has arisen between the United States and Germany is not of the ordinary type of international dispute. The two nations have no quarrel, but have reached a deadlock over Germany's new methods of conducting war against the Entente Allies, methods which interfere with the freedom of the United States in controlling their own commercial affairs.

Washington refuses to be dictated to by Germany as to the number of vessels American shipping lines will send across the Atlantic and refuses to paint her vessels in any particular way prescribed by Germany. The United States holds to her rights as a free nation and as a neutral, with no interest in the war and with no intention of allowing Germany to sink her ships simply because they do not sail strictly according to German instructions.

If Germany does not infringe upon the neutrality of the United States and if America does not do anything which may be taken as an infringement by Germany, Washington may still remain strictly neutral. If German submarines sink an American vessel, simply because that vessel is not complying with a ruling laid down by Berlin, but not agreed to by Washington, that act would be taken as an act of war. Action, however, would not be taken until the United States had made a thorough investigation into the case and had satisfied herself that a definite breach of neutrality had actually taken place. On the other hand, Germany may look upon the seizure of her interlopers as an act of war, and may immediately declare war on this score. The breaking off of relations is the laying of the fuse and the act of war is the match which sets everything in a blaze.

EXTRA WORK FOR SHORT TIME MEN

At the council meeting last night, Ald. Casey asked if it would not be possible for the outside departments to give more work to the men on the garbage wagon, who were working only four days a week. One of these men had six children to support and, at the present cost of living, he could not see how he could make out.

Ald. McRae said he heartily concurred in Ald. Casey's suggestion, but he believed that five days per week was the shortest time any of the men would work.

Ald. McClymont said that in going over the payrolls he noticed that the lowest wage was $80 per month, so that the men must be working more than four days.

2,000,000 Belgians Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Belgian Relief Fund

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flags are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

THE ROAD TO THE RIGHT.

YOU'VE met at least one of those few good old souls, who are constantly getting the worst of it when shopping, who don't believe in advertising. A hundred disappointing and instructive experiences have failed to teach him their plain lesson.

When he bought his first watch he was beguiled into buying one without a known name or a trustworthy guarantee. That watch—a poor timekeeper—cost him dearly by reason of missed appointments and missed trains, and for frequent repairs. Yet he paid the price of a good watch.

It is the same story with regard to his underwear, his shoes, and his fountain pen.

This good old soul's case is not unique. Many of us, if the truth be confessed, resemble him; we allow ourselves to be sold merchandise with an unknown brand or trade mark instead of buying merchandise which is well known to us through the medium of advertising. In slang language, we get "stung" pretty often.

In most of these cases we have ourselves to blame, for "the road to the right" thing to buy has been made plain by advertising.

There is no good reason for passing by the known thing, soundly guaranteed, to buy a dubious article, which, quality for quality, cannot be cheaper than the known, branded article.

"It is better to be sure than sorry."

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.
If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
