"THE SKATING RINK" AT THE WESTHOLME TONIGHT

The feature of the Westholme program for tonight is a threeact comedy entitled "The Skating Rink." It is played by a company of stars and provides no end of fun. The rest of the program is bright and interesting and the music of the usual high order.

HERRING IN THE HARBOR

The Fredelia is prospecting for herring in the harbor today and the herring are there all right, but are swimming very deep. The divers are bringing them up, and the moment a bird comes to the surface with a herring there is a scrap, as the sea gulls, unable to dive themselves, are waiting to pounce on the catch of the diver, and more often than not the gulls win out in the tussle.

It sounds like old times in the city these days when the sound of blasts echoes across the harbor. The blasting is taking place on G. T. P. territory just this side of the drydock, where W. T. Muse is taking out rock for rip-rap work by the railway company.

been invented. It is just as transparent as the familiar brittle article, but is tough and strong. It has withstood a .22 bullet.
