Captain Davies, commander of the Prince John, arrived from Victoria this morning.

George A. Woodland, who has been south on a business trip, returned home this forenoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Tingley and child, of Port Clements, arrived from the south this forenoon.

C. M. Tubman came north on the George this trip to look over the lumber prospects on Graham Island.

J. H. Pillsbury, who has been in Winnipeg in connection with drydock business, returned on last night's train.

W. E. Williams, who went to Ottawa as a member of the fisheries delegation, returned to the city last evening.

It is not what a nation gains but what it gives that makes a nation great. Do your duty by the Patriotic Fund.

T. A. Kelly, who is interested in lumbering on Graham Island, arrived here this forenoon en route for the Islands.

The soldier makes a great sacrifice, surely you can make the same with your dollars to do justice to his dependents.

The American schooner Malola brought in 19,000 pounds of halibut yesterday. The Cold Storage Company bought her fare at 12% cents.

T. H. Johnston, manager of the Cold Storage Company, is around again after having been confined to the house for a week with la grippe.

Mrs. Maude Rorvig, whose husband met his death in Portland, Oregon, some time ago, arrived in the city this morning to visit with Miss Rorvig.

The returned soldiers who returned this morning were given a hearty welcome, there being a big gathering of friends at the wharf to meet them.

Mrs. Gus Hanson, of Digby, has sent a handsome cushion to Mrs. George Morrow, to be raffled in aid of the Red Cross Fund. It will be put up at an early date.

St. Andrew's Society, united with the Sons of England, will give a reception to Joe Hutchinson and Allen Robertson in St. Andrew's rooms tomorrow night.

Fifteen of the men arrested in the gambling raid of early Sunday morning were fined $10 each at the police court yesterday, while the keeper of the house was fined $25.

The tug McCulloch, owned by the North Coast Towing Company Limited, is undergoing overhauling in the drydock. The McCulloch is the first local vessel to make use of the drydock.

Miss Pearson, who conducts a travel bureau in New York and who has been instrumental in bringing many tourists to northern British Columbia, arrived from the south this morning. Miss Pearson, who was met at the boat by Mayor McCaffery, is arranging for a big tourist season this summer.

Captain "Andy" Tyson arrived from Vancouver this morning on a recruiting mission. "Andy" looks first-rate in khaki, though his friends would have preferred to have seen him don the kilt.

The lantern lecture which was to have been delivered by Brigadier McLean in the Salvation Army barracks tomorrow night, has been postponed until the 22nd, the officer having been detained in Alaska.

Everybody is going to give to the Patriotic Fund as they never gave before. With everybody giving, everybody working, everybody boosting, the wives and kiddies of the men at the front will get a square deal.

Captain McGee, secretary of the Prince Rupert branch of the Vancouver Shipmasters' and Officers' Association, has received a letter of thanks from Sir Clive Phillips-Wooley, acknowledging receipt of the sum of $72.50 collected on behalf of the Sailors' Relief Fund.

There are signs of activity at the Clements Post Office site on Third Avenue. Many are asking if the government is putting up a diving platform for the benefit of the youngsters in summer. The erection looks rather like a hoarding for bill-posting purposes.

"BOB" CAMERON HAS ARRIVED AT THE COAST

Sergeant "Bob" Cameron, one of the boys of the first Prince Rupert contingent who has been in eastern Canada for some time undergoing treatment for a damaged arm, has now arrived in Vancouver, where Mrs. Cameron was anxiously awaiting his arrival. His left arm is still of little service and he will undergo further treatment at the Military Hospital at Esquimalt when it is hoped that the arm will return to normal. He received three bullets in it, between the shoulder and the elbow, the joint at the elbow being smashed.
