

HEALTHIEST ONE IN THE FAMILY

No Sign Of Dropsy And Kidney Trouble Since Taking "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

HATTIE WARREN

Port Robinson, Ont., July 8th, 1915. "We have used "Fruit-a-tives" in our home for over three years and have always found them a good medicine. Our little girl, Hattie, was troubled with Kidney Disease. The Doctor said she was threatened with Dropsy. Her limbs and body were all swollen and we began to think she could not live. Finally, we decided to try "Fruit-a-tives". She began to show improvement after we had given her a few tablets. In a short time, the swelling had all gone down and her flesh began to look more natural. Now she is the healthiest one in the family and has no signs of the old ailment. We can not say too much for "Fruit-a-tives" and would never be without them".

SIR WILFRID'S IMPERIALISM

ly intelligent way, of avenging the defeat of his ancestors.

The followers of Wolfe captured only Quebec, Sir Wilfrid has captured the whole country.

The gallant Montcalm with all his last regrets did not yet suspect that he had lost the key to half a continent.

BUT his fellow-countrymen, after four generations, in the name and in the wake of Sir Wilfrid have simply marched into legitimate political peaceful possession of it again.

The Norman rules the Saxon once more, with our consent, for the second time in 800 years.

For with a charm of manner which is altogether French, and a purity of eloquence which seems to have come down to these Gallo-Roman—French-Canadian untroubled from the days of Cicero; more fervid, more feeling and more latin than the oratory of Waldeck-Rousseau himself—Sir Wilfrid Laurier has carried the French name and French influence and French genius into the highest pinnacle of place and power in the New World. And he has carried it back again into the councils of the old.

He has made that influence and that moderation respected, both there and here, in spite of both extremes of opinion; in spite of mistaken Anglo-Saxon arrogance of universal superiority; in spite of Roman Catholic ultra-montanism, and in spite of Protestant prejudice; and in spite of some powerful enemies, and in spite of false friends.

And thus he has given to this country of his birth and to that country of his forefathers, what I can best describe in one of the poetic phrases of the last Prime Minister of France, as "Toujours d'un peu de gloire." (He has given to his country the alms of a little glory).—Donald Downie.

QUEBEC ELECTION A PYRRHIC VICTORY

count the registration cards—and remember that they do the counting—and say Quebec didn't sign as freely as the other provinces? People will remember that Quebec elected Sevigny and will take these statements with a grain of salt. From now on attempts to count Quebec out of the comity of the other provinces by means of invidious comparisons as to registration returns will be viewed with suspicion. People will be disposed to inquire what percentage signed in the other provinces and whether, for example, the workmen of the west, and a goodly number in the east, failed to sign the cards also.

All of which explains why the Conservative politicians wear such long faces nowadays. Dorchester has spoiled their game.—H. F. Gadsby.

An Army of Internal Bathers

Over half a million bright, keen, up-to-date Canadians and Americans have found that Internal Bathing is more essential to their well-being than External Baths.

Have found that, taken occasionally at night, they feel like different people the next morning. No more of that bilious, tired, nervous condition—but, having by Nature's own cleanser, antiseptic warm water, removed all the poisonous waste from the Lower Intestine, they awake thoroughly refreshed by normal sleep, with all their functions acting in healthy accord, bright, happy, clear-headed and confident, eager and capable for the duties of the day.

2,000,000 Belgians Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flags are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

Send your subscriptions weekly, monthly or in one lump sum to Local or Provincial Committees, or to the Central Executive Committee, 50 St. Peter St., Montreal.

ALBERT SOAPS, LIMITED, MONTREAL.

The Case of A.B. Smith, Retailer.

A. B. SMITH has a dry goods store in a certain Canadian city. He does a good business, but wants to do more. He believes that Advertising in his local newspaper is the way to get more business. So he advertises—every now and then. This is where our friend Smith is wrong—in advertising every now and then. He should advertise regularly—as frequently as his local newspaper is published.

Smith says he wants to advertise regularly, but he can't always find the time to prepare advertisements, which is true, for he is his own buyer, salesman, director of store service, credit man and half-a-dozen other things.

What Smith should do is this: If he is located in one of the smaller cities, in which there are no advertising agencies giving a local copy service, and he has no one among his own staff qualified by instinct or experience to write the daily announcements, he should go to the publisher of the newspaper in which he means to advertise, requesting his help. In nine cases out of ten, the publisher, through his advertising manager, will be only too glad to give Smith the assistance desired.

If Smith is located in one of the larger cities he should secure the services of a recognized advertising agency which will take over the work of preparing his advertisements.

In this way Smith can be sure of having his advertisements prepared regularly and intelligently, with no more trouble to him than the supplying of the information required by the writer of the advertisements.

So Smith can do more business, and more business means a larger income for himself, to say nothing of other gains that go hand in hand with the doing of bigger business.

This man Smith---do you know him? Are YOU Smith?

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
