NEW GERMAN ATTACK ON BETHMANN-HOLLWEG

Amsterdam, Feb. 20.—Despite the fact that the Kaiser recently conferred upon the Imperial Chancellor his latest creation in orders, the latter's enemies are again at work. They have sent out a new pamphlet, which, according to the "Vorwärts", contains inter alia the following passages:—The Jew and the Social Democrat today govern Germany. The old country families, the old officers and official families, all those in country and in town who have the national spirit in the Prussian sense, are pushed aside and pressed to the wall. With sullen wrath and clenched fists they are looking on powerless, because one thing prevents them seizing the Chancellor, who is fatal to the nation, by the throat and that is the old loyalty which still sees even in this mischievous man the Minister of the King.

The pamphlet also speaks of "the amateur of the Chancellor's seat who delights in silly ideas of humanity" and "the greatest culprit among the German people, who prevents us from winning victory."

After condemning the peace proposal, the pamphlet concludes: "Nobody need be surprised at the rumor which is going through Germany, that the Chancellor has been bought by England, for which country he at any rate has done very good service, while prejudicing his own."

The "Vorwärts" adds: "Now we at least know the meaning of loyalty and national spirit in the Prussian sense."

The following is from the Washington, D. C., Post: "There was not one neutral bloodheat in Admiral Dewey's heart. The purpose of Britain he took for granted; the honor of a British officer he would not question; the fact that Britain was mistress of the seas was, to him, as an American, a comfort, not a fear. But in Germany and Germany's real purposes in the Pacific he had no faith whatever."

"All I ask of you is that you keep your throne." So says Bill to Tino. And it looks as if Tino will find it a rather difficult matter after all.

2,000,000
Belgians
Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,600,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flags are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

Modern Beacon Fires

THE old beacon fires were the great advertising mediums of their age.

Though they could not advertise merchandise, they advertised the things of most vital interest to the people.

Placed on the summits of high hills, bearing a message to thousands of "readers," they were prototypes of those modern fires of Twentieth Century commerce—the "beacon" fires of Newspaper Advertising.

The advertisements appearing in the newspapers to-day are shining lights in the world of commerce, flashing out news and information to a waiting world.

When the modern manufacturer lights the Beacon Fires of Newspaper Advertising he places his message before the people in a way that will impart knowledge, beget appreciation and win preference for his goods.

Who can fail to see any day the gleaming messages of "Magic Baking Powder," "Standard Ideal Ware," "Sunlight Soap," "Gillette Safety Razors," "Penman's Underwear," "Infants' Delight Soap," and many others?

To the Manufacturers of Canada

Each day sees more articles given publicity in the newspapers. Are your products and your brand still in the valley of obscurity, or are they blazoned forth by the beacon fires of advertising on the high hill of public favor?

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 203, Lunenburg Building, Toronto.
