YOUR WINDOWS

From the outside looking in, or from the inside looking out, the appearance of your windows is an index of your care for the appearance of your home. To the visitor they indicate your taste, your eye for harmony of color; to the passer-by they indicate something of your care for the outward appearance of your dwelling. It is not essential that your window draperies be expensive, but it is imperative that they be in good taste.

Our Drapery Department

contains a stock of wide variety of materials and prices. As low as 12 1-2c the yard and as high as $2.00. Fancy and plain scrims, fancy and plain madrasses, novelty curtain goods, tapestries, nets, etc,, and, in the ready-made curtains, we have the Nottinghams from 50c the pair and up to $10. Rope Portieres, Tapestry Portieres in all the leading shades and, in short, we can give you the benefit of a wide selection, and, should you ask it, competent information on anything pertaining to draping of your windows.

Overseas Club Always Adding New Names

TWO DOZEN LAST NIGHT

Plans Discussed, and Rehearsal Held for Victoria Day Entertainment. New Artists Will Take Part. President Intends to Retire Shortly.

Twenty-four new members were added to the roll of the Prince Rupert branch of the Overseas Club last night. The membership of the club has increased very rapidly since its organisation in March and last night the President Mr. J. F. McDonald stated that arrangements are shortly to be made to have the club incorporated.

Today the various artists who are to take part in the Victoria Day celebration arranged by the Overseas Club, held a rehearsal in the McIntyre Hall. Some very good talent indeed was represented, and there will be a number of new entertainers.

President J. F. McDonald at last night's meeting intimated his intention to resign his position shortly as he will not be able to take such an active part in the organisation as he has done of late. The regret of the meeting was expressed by Mr. Bullock Webster. Mr. J. F. McDonald is going south this week, but will return to Prince Rupert in time for the Victoria Day entertainment.

Various minor matters were touched upon last night, and a couple of printing accounts were referred to the Finance Committee. A letter from the headquarters of the Overseas Club in London congratulating Prince Rupert of the formation of a live branch of the club was read and applauded. Another meeting of the club will be held on Tuesday evening when reports of members undertaking the sale of tickets for the coming entertainment will be received. Last night's meeting was held in the hall at the Westholme Lumber Co.'s premises.
