NEW AUSTRIAN TRICK

London, March 13.—Official announcement was made here today that Austria-Hungary has issued a proclamation to the Albanians, stating that it has granted autonomy to Albania under its protection.

Influential Albanians have published from Saloniki, the statement says, a protest, saying the Austrian measure is useless because it is directed toward a country which, already independent, has declared war on the enemies of the Entente. The purpose of the Vienna government in issuing this proclamation, the statement adds, obviously is to justify the levy of men for its armies.

After the occupation of Serbia and Montenegro by troops of the Central Powers all of Albania was taken over, with the exception of the section in the south below Avlona, which still is held by the Italians. Essad Pasha, Provisional President of Albania, served with the Turkish army early in the war, but later left it and declared war on the Central Powers, taking a force of Albanians under his command to Saloniki, where it joined the Entente army.

THE MASQUERADE

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the roller rink last evening. There was a big crowd out and they certainly enjoyed themselves. Charlie Chaplin was there and he certainly lived up to his reputation. Some of the costumes were very good indeed. The floor was in very good condition, and the skating was fine, and the rhythmic strains of the music kept all up to time.

He was called home on account of the serious illness of his father and left for the south on Sunday's boat, but failed to reach there in time. The sympathy of Mr. Clark's many friends here will be extended to him in his loss.

WESTHOLME THEATRE

At the Westholme tonight will be screened a fascinating photograph entitled "The Temptation of Adam." The play is built around the doings of certain members of the wealthier class and is from start to finish extremely interesting. "The Temptation of Adam" is a very well staged production and is of great merit. The musical programme is of a high order and adds greatly to the enjoyment always to be found at the Westholme.

GERMAN DIPLOMACY

London, March 13.—The Koelische Volks Zeitung under the heading: "Oh, Our Diplomacy!" bitterly contrasts the behavior of Bernstorff on his departure from the United States with the behavior of Gerard when he left Berlin. Did Gerard send extravagant messages that he was "gratified?" it asks. "Did he dispatch from the German frontier parting messages to his German friends in Berlin? Not a bit of it. The dignified American made his farewells coldly and departed in all reserve. A comparison shows what is wrong with our diplomacy. Let our authorities see to it that our younger diplomatists who are now growing up are educated differently. What the fatherland needs is that after the war we shall send more ambassadors and ministers who are filled with the Hindenburg spirit instead of diplomatists who practice weakly consideration of other people and seek their successes only by being conciliatory in sparing feelings and in anxious submissiveness."
