WESTHOLME THEATRE.

The Westholme Theatre had a full house last night and a full houseful of gratified patrons. "Hulda from Holland," with Mary Pickford in the title role proved to be everything that has been said about it. It is a masterpiece. Mary Pickford is known to be an artist of no mean order. Pathos and humor are well blended, and, of course, there is the heart interest, which before the picture is ended becomes a very serious affair for "Hulda." Altogether one would go far before seeing a better constructed play, or one that is played better. Those who missed seeing this great play last night would do well to see it tonight, and many of those who saw it last night will want to witness the scenes again tonight. There is also a topical budget of great interest. The musical programme is up to the usual standard of the Westholme, well up, and that is saying enough.

Internal Bathing's Rapid Growth

It is but natural to expect that a relief from Constipation and the many ills which it causes, which is so effective and so natural as Internal Bathing, should quickly make many converts.

But its general use has increased so tremendously in the past few years as to suggest other reasons, and these are found in the statement of users that they feel as if "made over new" the morning after an Internal Bath.

The elimination of the pernicious and poisonous waste which is ever present in the Lower Intestine gives Nature a chance to work unhampered. And one arises in the morning clear-headed, able, bright, confident and eager for the day's duties.

Mr. F. E. Smith writes:—"Dear Doctor,—Your 'Cascade' made a new man of me at the age of 49. I persuaded my wife to use the treatment also, and today she has better health than ever before. Since the use of the 'Cascade' she sleeps better and can walk for hours without fatigue. Fainting spells have become a condition of the past; can eat anything on the bill of fare and drink all beverages. Does not take cold when exposed; hot weather does not cause oppression."

The "J. B. L. Cascade," the most efficient device for Internal Bathing, is being shown and explained in detail by Cyril H. Orme, Druggist, corner 3rd Ave. and 6th Street, Prince Rupert. Ask for free booklet, "Why Man of Today is Only 50 Per Cent. Efficient." If you prefer, write to Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell, 163 College Street, Toronto, for same.
