STEWART NOTES

The Riverside group at Seven-mile, on the Salmon river, has been acquired by Mr. R. W. Martin and Dr. C. D. Carter, of Seattle. A contract has been let to Dan Linderberg, the former owner, to drive a hundred feet and the vein averages four feet in width and carries values from $30 to $70 in gold, silver and lead. This is a new start entirely and there are good prospects, but the ground is deep.

The Fitzgerald Brothers are freighting supplies by dog team to their molybdenite claim on the Naas side of the Bear River pass. They expect to spend several months in the proving and developing of the lead.

Dan Linderberg has bonded his Fish Creek claims to Seattle interests.

The Buch properties have been taken over by parties interested it is said, in the Rocher de Boule mountain on the Skeena, and development work has been started by Pat Daly.

J. Nesbit and A. Archie have bonded their copper claims on Bear river for $50,000. Preparations are being made to start development work shortly.

Frank Martin arrived to repair the broken span of the Bear river bridge which collapsed during the floods of last summer, which were caused by the late melting of the snow. The snowfall this year was the severest known in sixteen years.

Willoughby and partner returned from a trip to Willoughby Creek on the Naas. They expect to return during the summer and continue their investigations of the place, deposits there.

Mr. Geo. Moffat, superintendent of the Granby Company's operations on Gibson Island, is in town.

Word has been received in town from Bob Davie, late of the Westholme Lumber Co. He is at present in hospital in England, but hopes to be patched up sufficiently in time to be in on the march to Berlin.

Word has been received in town from Jack Joyce, an old timer of Prince Rupert's. He is now in North Wales at a place called Llanfairpwllgwynylgogerychwyndrobwl - Llantysiliogogogoch. He sends the pronunciation of this name too, which a philologist might say bears some considerable resemblance to some Chinook names. Just imagine the size of the baggage labels the L. and N. W. Rly. will require at this station.

As one enthusiastic MURAD smoker said:

"A MURAD is perfection when you light it, and it gets better as you smoke it."
