After Taking Only One Box Of "Fruit-a-tives"

EAST SHIP HARBOUR, N. S.
"It is with great pleasure that I write to tell you of the wonderful benefits I have received from taking 'Fruit-a-tives'. For years, I was a dreadful sufferer from Constipation and Headaches, and I was miserable in every way. Nothing in the way of medicines seemed to help me. Then I finally tried 'Fruit-a-tives' and the effect was splendid. After taking one box, I feel like a new person, to have relief from those sickening Headaches".

Internal Bathing's Rapid Growth

It is but natural to expect that a relief from Constipation and the many ills which it causes, which is so effectual and so natural as Internal Bathing, should quickly make many converts.
But its general use has increased so tremendously in the past few years as to surpass other reasons, and these are found in the statement of users that they feel as if "made over new" the morning after an Internal Bath.

The elimination of the pernicious and poisonous waste which is ever present in the Lower Intestine gives Nature a chance to work unhampered. And one arises in the morning clear-headed, able, bright, content and eager for the day's duties.
Mr. F. E. Smith writes:—

"Dear Doctor,—Your 'Cascade' made a new man of me at the age of 49. I persuaded my wife to use the treatment also, and today she has better health than ever before. Since the use of the 'Cascade' she sleeps better and can walk for hours without fatigue. Fainting spells have become a condition of the past; can eat anything on the bill of fare and drink all beverages. Does not take cold when exposed; but weather does not cause oppression."

The "J. B. L. Cascade," the most efficient device for Internal Bathing, is being shown and explained in detail by Cyril H. Jones, Druggist, corner 3rd Ave. and 6th Street Prince Rupert. ## LORD SHAUGHNESSY SAYS, "GET OUT OF RUTS"

In discussing the making arrangements for the returning soldiers, Lord Shaughnessy makes some very pertinent remarks. The seizing of the opportunity for Canada in the return of the soldiers will be the test of the quality of Canadian statesmanship, he says. Canada has always wanted men to develop the country. Here they will be, ready to our hand. Immigration is desirable, but uncertain. These men of ours will come home as a matter of course. Lord Shaughnessy takes it for granted that the present system of getting ex-soldiers employment will be greatly improved and developed, but even if the system is so improved that every man returning after the war gets some sort of a job, it does not follow that we have any great cause to boast. We shall have achieved a negative success. We must aim at something higher, a more positive success. There is too much haphazard employment at the best of times and with a flood of men coming back there will be a greatly increased danger of shoving them into places without regard to suitability. Putting round pegs into square holes does not pay. We must devise schemes of employment which will use a high percentage of each man's capacity. The man can make most by work that he is interested in and has skill for.

We want to get out of ruts. We do our thinking in ruts and this keeps us acting in ruts. Take agriculture for instance. People have got a habit of thinking and saying that intensive farming is not suitable to Canadians, and accordingly it is not developed. But Canadians pride themselves on their adaptability and many of them might transfer their energies from extensive to intensive farming with great advantage to themselves and to the country. This is a line of industry which partly disabled soldiers, with sufficient training could carry on both easily and profitably. It involves thorough co-operation of course. But co-operation or government organization of buying and selling—in other words, national co-operation—may be applied in the near future to the agricultural industry in general. At a critical time like this, with tremendous problems to solve, we must be bold without rashness, and not flatter our timidity with the name of caution. If we stay in the rut then the less we talk about the national intelligence and enterprise, the better.
