CAUCUS LEGISLATION THING OF THE PAST

The day of caucus legislation is past and gone, the Premier told the Leader of the Opposition last week, while the House was in committee on the Highway Act amendments. Both then and on the last occasion when this bill was up for discussion in committee Liberal members, although it is a Government measure, had criticism of some of its provisions, which was welcomed by the minister in charge of it, Hon. Dr. King, minister of public works.

Mr. Bowser had the suggestion to make that the minister should take the members who had had anything to say into caucus and endeavor to reconcile their views before the bill was gone on with any further.

New Position.

"What is the matter with the Leader of the Opposition," remarked Hon. Mr. Brewster, "is that he is trying to adapt himself to a new position here, and to the new experience of having legislation done on the floor of the House. He has had so much passed in caucus that he thinks it is all done there. I would suggest to the honorable gentleman, Mr. Speaker, that the day of the caucus legislation is done in this province." (Cheers.)

"You have caucuses all the same," said Mr. Bowser.

No Caucus Legislation.

"We do not legislate in caucus," replied the Premier. "We discuss principles there, but we enact our legislation on the floor of the House, in full view and hearing of the public, and where the opinions of members can be heard. It is not the intention of this Government to pass any legislation in caucus, now or at any time." (Cheers.)

HIS MAJESTY KING GEORGE

2,000,000
Belgians
Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the

Belgian Relief Fund

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flag are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!
