RED CROSS NOTES

Mrs. Healey and Mrs. Bazett-Jones will have charge of the sale of home cooking on Friday afternoon at the Red Cross rooms. There is always a very much greater demand for home cooking each Friday than can be supplied and double the present quantity could be handled quite successfully. This would mean double supplies of medical appliances for the boys at the front. In view of the growing casualty lists, it is most important that sufficient supplies be on hand when required and it is felt that the increasing demands upon the Red Cross have only to be mentioned to ensure their being met out of the generosity of the people.

Miss West is thanked for a donation of $5.

The society acknowledges with thanks the receipt of the sum of $170 from the ladies at Seal Cove, being the proceeds of the recent bazaar.

The whalebone cane made by Alex. Yule and donated to the Society by Mr. W. H. Cook was won at last week's sale by Mr. J. C. Brady.

The sale of home cooking held last Friday under the charge of Mrs. Heilbronner and Mrs. S. D. Macdonald realized $96. Notwithstanding the handicap of the wintry weather, this was a splendid result. The thanks of the society is extended to those who contributed to the success of the sale by gifts of home cooking and prizes for raffling, and to Miss Scammon, whose services were invaluable.

The articles raffled were numerous and varied, ranging from jewellery to potatoes, and would make a long list.

The public are asked to remember the sale by the school girls on the 31st inst., in the Borden Street School from 3 till 6 p.m. There will be many Easter novelties for sale. Afternoon tea will be served and an orchestra will discourse sweet music.

An old rose jar gifted by Mrs. S. M. Newton will be one of the features at Friday's sale.

The society has to thank Mrs. Deasey, of Massett, once again for another box of useful articles.
