

NOTED MUSICIAN OF MONTREAL

Advises The Use Of "FRUIT-A-TIVES", The Famous Fruit Medicines

MR. ROSENBERG
660 Casgrain St., Montreal.
April 20th, 1915.

"In my opinion, no other medicine in the world is so curative for Constipation and Indigestion as 'Fruit-a-tives'. I was a sufferer from these complaints for five years, and my sedentary occupation, music, brought about a kind of Intestinal Paralysis—with nasty Headaches, belching gas, drowsiness after eating, and Pain in the Back. I tried pills and medicines of physicians, but nothing helped me. Then I was induced to try 'Fruit-a-tives', and now for six months I have been entirely well. I advise any one who suffers from that horrible trouble—Chronic Constipation with the resultant Indigestion, to try 'Fruit-a-tives', and you will be agreeably surprised at the great benefit you will receive". FOOD SPECULATORS AND THE STORAGE state that he is credited with putting Sir Thomas White where he is and that Sir Thomas White is credited with putting Mr. Flavelle where he is—not in the business world, to be sure, but at Ottawa. At one time the story got about that Mr. Flavelle was going to make himself premier and Sir Thomas White Right Bower and then again that he was going to make Sir Thomas premier and himself the Man Behind. But Mr. Flavelle disclaimed both the soft impeachment and so did Sir Thomas. Some fool spilled the beans while they were away in England and of course there was nothing to do but to deny it when they came home. In fact it fell down the same way as the Dardanelles campaign—the surprise squibbed out.

It all goes to show, however, what an efficient person Mr. Flavelle, even on his great merits, couldn't be elected to anything in the gift of the voters, but that doesn't make him any the less efficient or any the less a pet of the Borden Government. Mr. Flavelle is efficiency last degree. If he were running this war he would have General Sir Douglas Haig punch a time clock whenever he came on or went off duty. Moreover he would cut out the lot of rum for the water-soaked heroes in the front trenches and do the thing on cocoa and helpful tracts. The sixth commandment would be the only one the soldiers were allowed to break and that only temporarily. In short, the war would bear a close resemblance to the Bible class of which Mr. Flavelle is the instructor. Above all, it would not break the Sabbath.

By all odds Mr. Flavelle is the best man the Borden Government can call on to deal with the food speculators—best from every angle, honesty, efficiency, experience. Shallow people are suggesting substitutes, such as rice or spaghetti for potatoes, but every time a poor man mentions what he is going to eat next the food speculator beats him to it. Other people favor back yard production, vacant lot tillage and other violations of nature. Anyone who has ever toyed with the execrable and indurated quality of city backyards and vacant lots knows just how much to expect from this quarter.

We are confident that Mr. Flavelle would put an end to all such silliness as asking city people to plant onions in their flower beds and growing mushrooms in the cellar to relieve the high cost of living. Mr. Flavelle, who has a beautiful conservatory of his own at his home in Queen's Park, Toronto, would not willingly oust his orchids for anything so feebly ornamental as the common or garden turnip. How then could he ask Sir Henry Pellatt to terrace Casa Loma with cabbages? No, Mr. Flavelle would do something better than that. With his organizing genius and his talent for efficiency it would not be long before he would evolve a plan to Feed The People Without Giving Them Anything To Eat Or In Any Way Interfering With Business Enterprise As It Exists Today. I can fancy what a fine fat blue book Mr. Flavelle would get out on that subject. It would be big enough and heavy enough to hold the food situation down until the Borden Government got ready to let go.

And Mr. Flavelle would do all this with the silent dispatch of a well-oiled machine. No blustering reformer he. The iron hand in the velvet glove. Oh the velvet! Mr. Flavelle is so soft spoken, so smooth, so silky that his friends call him Flossie.—H. F. Gadsby.

Bathe Internally

Over 50,000 People Are Now Doing So.

For many years physicians have agreed that the vast majority of human ills were caused by accumulated waste in the Lower Intestine; that in our present way of living nature could not remove all this waste without assistance, no matter how regular we might be, and that the poisons from this waste circulating through the blood pulled us away down below par and were responsible for many diseases of a serious nature.

During this time the "J. B. L. Cascade" for internal Bathing has, because of their recommendation and those of its users, been steadily growing in favor. Recently, however, the startling news which has been covering this country, that great surgeons and specialists have been operating on the Lower Intestine for the most chronic and serious diseases, has caused Americans to become thoroughly awake to the importance of keeping this Lower Intestine free from all poisonous waste matter, and over 50,000 are now using Internal Baths.

If you try the "J. B. L. Cascade" you will find yourself always bright, confident and capable—the poisoned waste makes us bilious, blue, dull and nervous. Internal Baths are Nature's own cure for Constipation—just warm water properly applied. Drugs force Nature—the "J. B. L. Cascade" gently assists her.

Call and see at Cyril H. Orme's, Druggist, Corner 3rd Ave. and 6th St., or ask there for "Why Man of Today Is Only 50 per cent Efficient," a booklet of great interest, which is given free on request. If you prefer, write for Booklet to Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell, 163 College Street, Toronto.
