

You Can Make Excellent Cake With Fewer Eggs

Just use an additional quantity of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, about a teaspoon, in place of each egg omitted.

This applies equally well to nearly all baked foods. Try the following recipe according to the new way:

CREAM LAYER CAKE

Old Way	New Way
1 cup sugar	1 cup sugar
1 cup milk	1 cup milk
1 cup flour	1 cup flour
1 teaspoon Dr. Price's Baking Powder	4 teaspoons Dr. Price's Baking Powder
2 eggs	1 egg
1/2 cup shortening	2 tablespoons shortening
1 teaspoon flavoring	1 teaspoon flavoring

Makes 1 Large 2-Layer Cake

DIRECTIONS—Cream the sugar and shortening together, then mix in the egg. After sifting the flour and Dr. Price's Baking Powder together, two or three times, add it all to the mixture. Gradually add the milk and beat with spoon until you have a smooth pour batter. Add the flavoring. Pour into greased layer cake tins and bake in a moderately hot oven for twenty minutes. This cake is best baked in two layers. Put together with cream filling and spread with white icing.

THE RETURNED SOLDIERS INTERVIEW THE COUNCIL

A delegation from the Returned Soldiers Association waited upon the city council last evening and the subject of the employment of "alien enemies" by the civic government was discussed very fully. Mr. Peter Lorenzen, the city engineer, was the alleged alien enemy and his vindication by the city council was complete. In reply to the returned soldiers, the mayor and each councillor expressed their opinion of the case. For the returned soldiers it was stated that the matter had been brought to their attention by citizens outside of their association, and they admitted the right of the city council to act as they saw fit in the matter.

The facts as brought out in the council chamber were that Mr. Lorenzen was born of Danish parents in the lost provinces of Schleswig-Holstein, which were stolen from Denmark as were Alsace-Lorraine from France a few years later, by Germany. Mr. Lorenzen's father, although he continued to live in the conquered territory, was never else but a Danish subject, always refusing to take the oath of allegiance to Prussia. He educated his family likewise, to such good purpose that rather than swear fealty to the conquerors and serve in the German army, Mr. Peter Lorenzen left Schleswig before he became of military age. He came west, settled in Canada years ago and became a Canadian citizen. It was felt by each member of the council that he was a Canadian, if not by birth, by adoption. To discriminate against him now, after all these years would be to exile him. He had no other country. He was bound by no oath of any other government.

"You may not think you are asking very much," said the mayor, "but you are asking me to declare officially that this man is an exile and that he has no country. If you come to me with any other man qualified to fill his position, who is a returned soldier, this council is obliged to consider the returned soldiers in every way, but I cannot see how I am assisting you in discharging him now."

"I am very sorry if I displease you," continued the mayor, "I would rather displease any other organization in town, but you will think the better of me when I tell you just how I feel."

In the very full discussion of the matter which followed, entered into by every councillor, it was felt that as no charges were brought against Mr. Lorenzen, except the accident of his birth and the fact of his being an official member of the short-lived German social club in this city, which was immediately dissolved upon the outbreak of the war, to take action against him would be like condemning him without a trial, which was un-British. Mr. Lorenzen, it was stated had already volunteered for active service, but just on account of his name and his birth place, he had been refused. It was stated that malicious attempts were being made against the acting engineer which might work an injustice upon him. The soldiers were offered every facility for investigating the true facts so that they could refute such stories.

At the finish of the discussion, the delegation replied to the council and withdrew.
